Bill Bartholomay

Chairman of the Board

Bill Bartholomay, Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Atlanta Braves since their move to Atlanta in 1966, has witnessed his team win 12 division championships, five National League pennants and one World Series. The Braves won their first division title in 1969, repeated in 1982, won National League pennants in 1991 and 1992, another N.L. West crown in 1993, a World Championship in 1995, another pennant in 1996 and divisional titles in 1997 and 1998. The team won its fifth National League pennant in 1999, another division title in 2000 and a record-setting 10th consecutive division championship in 2001.

In December of 2001, Baseball America honored the Braves as the most outstanding major league franchise of the past two decades with its 20th Anniversary Award of Excellence.

Bartholomay, involved with the team as a director or owner for 40 years, led a group which purchased the then Milwaukee Braves in 1962 and moved the club to Atlanta in 1966. Prior to his association with the Braves, Bartholomay was a director and shareholder of the Chicago White Sox.

Major League Baseball has recognized Bartholomay's expertise in several areas. He is chairman of MLB's Ownership committee and a member of Restructuring, Realignment and Legislative committees. He began his second active four-year term as a member of the Major League Baseball Executive Council in January of 1999, is a trustee of the MLB Players benefit plan, is a past chairman of the Commissioner Search Committee and a past member of the National League Executive Committee and the committee which recommended Bill White as N.L. president in the spring of 1989.

In January of 1994, the Braves 400 Club honored Bartholomay with its Ivan Allen, Jr. "Mr. Baseball" award, which is presented to "the person who has contributed significantly to the promotion of baseball in the Atlanta area."

Although best known for his sports leadership, Bartholomay wears many hats in the business world. He is President of Near North National Group; Vice Chairman of Turner Broadcasting System, Inc. and a Director of WMS Industries, Inc. and Midway Games. He also serves as Chairman of the Chicago Park District Board of Commissioners, Commissioner of the Chicago Public Building Commission and as a director or trustee of many other civic and business organizations and educational institutions throughout the country.

Stan Kasten

President

Stan Kasten, with his unprecedented resume, probably has more top-level sports administration than anyone else in the country. As President of Major League Baseball's Atlanta Braves, the National Basketball Association's Atlanta Hawks and the National Hockey League's Atlanta Thrashers as well as being Turner Broadcasting System's Vice President for Sports Teams and Chairman of Philips Arena, he is one of the most highly-regarded executives in professional sports.

Kasten, 50, is in his 16th season as Braves President and TBS Vice President. Under his leadership, the Braves have evolved into one of baseball's most successful franchises. In 2001, Atlanta extended its own record of consecutive division titles to 10. Since 1991, the Braves have won more games than any team in baseball, five N.L. pennants and one World Championship and have drawn more than 3,000,000 fans six times.

Both Major League Baseball and the National Basketball Association have relied on Kasten's expertise in labor-management relations. As a member of MLB's owners negotiating committee, Kasten played a key role in formulating and articulating various management proposals and positions during baseball's player-management negotiations in 1994 and 1995.

On November 1, 1999, Kasten was named the President and Governor of the National Hockey League's Atlanta Thrashers. He is the first person in professional sports history to hold the position of president simultaneously for three different teams.

Kasten's association with Braves, Hawks and Thrashers goes back 26 years when he met then owner, Ted Turner, at a Braves-Cardinals game in 1976 in St. Louis when Kasten was celebrating his graduation from law school with a tour of Major League baseball parks. He soon was appointed in-house legal counsel for the Hawks and Braves and served as the Hawks' Assistant General Manager for two years before becoming, at age 27, the youngest General Manager in NBA history in November of 1979. He was named Hawks President in April 1986 and Braves President in November of that same year. He relinquished his Hawks' GM duties in 1990, when the team brought in Pete Babcock.

During his long career, both Major League Baseball and the National Basketball Association have relied on Kasten's labor-management relations expertise. As a member of MLB's owners negotiating committee, Kasten has played a key role in formulating and articulating various management proposals and positions. He has also been involved in developing the NBA's collective bargaining agreement between its players and management.

In baseball, Kasten has served as chairman of the Player Personal Development Committee and on committees dealing with labor, realignment and expansion. In basketball, he has served on the NBA's Marketing Committee, the Player Pension Committee and the Expansion Committee. He currently is a member of the Hawks' Board of Directors and the NBA Board of Governors. He is a former trustee of the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame.

Kasten has also taken an active role in reshaping Atlanta's sports skyline. In charge of overseeing the conversion of the 1996 Olympic Stadium into Turner Field, the home of the Braves, he also oversaw the design of Philips Arena, which opened in the fall of 1999 as the home of the Hawks and Thrashers.

He speaks regularly to legal associations throughout the country and is on the Board of Directors of the National Sports Lawyers Association, which honored him with their "Award of Excellence" in 2000.

Born February 1, 1952, in Lakewood, NJ, Kasten attended Rutgers University before transferring to New York University (NYU), where he graduated in 1973 with a degree in psychology, earned magna cum laude honors and was chosen Phi Beta Kappa. He received a Juris Doctor degree from Columbia Law School in 1976, playing in the Jersey Shore Summer Baseball League during his law school years. He has competed in an over-40 baseball league in Atlanta.

Stan and his wife, Helen, live in Sandy Springs with their four children: Alana, Corey, Sherry and Jay.

Henry Aaron

Senior Vice President & Assistant to the President

Since his retirement from professional baseball, Aaron has given back to society for more than 20 years. His Chasing the Dream Foundation was established to help children between the ages of 9 and 12 realize their dreams as he realized his. The foundation gives grants to children to enable them to pursue advanced study in music, art, writing, dance and sports.

In February of this year, Aaron received the first Jackie Robinson Lifetime Achievement Legacy Award from the Negro Leagues Baseball Museum, honoring his "career excellence in the face of adversity."

At his 65th birthday celebration in Atlanta on February 5, 1999, Aaron was honored for his lifetime achievements both as a player and as a humanitarian. President Bill Clinton, the Commissioner of Baseball, Bud Selig, and Sammy Sosa were among those in attendance as Major League Baseball recognized Aaron's talents with the introduction of the Hank Aaron Award. The award is presented annually to honor the best hitters in the National and American leagues and was unveiled at the 1999 World Series.

Following his playing career, Aaron joined the Braves' front office on October 7, 1976, for a 13-year tenure as a Braves Vice President and Director of Player Development. In that position, he oversaw the development of many players instrumental in the Braves' 1982 National League West Division championship, including Dale Murphy, who won back-to-back N.L. MVP awards in 1982-83. Among active players, Tom Glavine was signed while Aaron was in charge of baseball operations.

Since December of 1989, he has served as Senior Vice President and Assistant to the President.

Aaron, the greatest home run hitter of all time, was elected to Baseball's Hall of Fame in January of 1982. He missed by nine votes being the first unanimous choice ever in the voting by the Baseball Writer's Association of America. Aaron received 406 of a possible 415 votes for a percentage of .978. Aaron and Frank Robinson were inducted into the Hall of Fame at Cooperstown, N.Y., on August 1, 1982. In February of 2000, Aaron replaced the late Pee Wee Reese on the 15-member Hall of Fame Veterans Committee.

In his 23-year Major League career, Aaron rewrote baseball's hitting record book. He holds more Major League batting records than any other player in the game's history. Among his records are some truly amazing ones, including Most Runs Batted In, Lifetime, 2,297; Most Extra-Base Hits, Lifetime, 1,477; Most Total Bases, Lifetime, 6,856; and, of course, Most Home Runs, Lifetime, 755. Aaron also ranks second on the all-time list in at-bats (12,364) and runs (2,174, tied with Babe Ruth), third in games (3,298) and hits (3,771), ninth in doubles (624), 11th in singles (2,294) and tied for 14th in years of service (23).

His most famous home run came in Atlanta on April 8, 1974, when he hit his 715th, breaking Babe Ruth's seemingly untouchable record. He did it before a sellout crowd of 53,775 at Atlanta Stadium. The pitch came in the bottom of the fourth inning, the Los Angeles Dodgers leading 3-1, with a 1-0 count and Darrell Evans waiting on first. Al Downing threw a fastball at 9:07 p.m. that Hank sent over the left field fence. Reliever Tom House caught the ball in the Braves' bullpen and brought it to Aaron in the home plate celebration.

On May 17, 1970, Hank singled at Cincinnati to become the first player to compile both 3,000 career hits and more than 500 homers. He joined the 30-30 club (30 HR's and 30 SB's in the same season) in 1963. Aaron played in the Major League All-Star Game 24 times, including the years 1959-61 when two games were played. He was honored as the National League's Most Valuable Player in 1957 and named Player of the Year by The Sporting News in 1956 and 1963. He played 21 seasons with the Braves before being traded to Milwaukee for outfielder Dave May and minor leaguer Roger Alexander at the end of 1974. Aaron retired as a player two years later.

Aaron was first scouted by Dewey Griggs of the Milwaukee Braves during an Indianapolis Clowns tryout. The Braves eventually were able to strike a deal and beat out the Giants for Aaron's services. In 1952 he was assigned to the Eau Claire, Wisconsin, team of the Northern League. He was the unanimous choice for the Northern League's Rookie of the Year while only playing in 87 games (.336, 9 HR, 61 RBI, 116 hits and 89 runs). In 1953 he was promoted to the Jacksonville Tars, where he became the first African-American player in the South Atlantic League. Aaron won the batting title (.362) and led the league in RBI (125), runs (115), hits (208) and finished second in home runs (22) and earned the league's MVP award.

He began his Major League career in 1954 when a spring training injury forced Bobby Thompson out of the Braves' lineup. In his debut he struck out twice, grounded out, hit into a double play and fouled out. Aaron hit his first home run off Vic Raschi on April 23, 1954. He became the second youngest player to win a batting title (.328) in 1956 and the second youngest to collect his 1,000th hit, off Sandy Koufax in 1959. On June 12, 1967, Aaron recorded his 2,500th hit and achieved his 3,000th hit on May 17, 1970. His 2,000th RBI came on July 3, 1972.

During his career, Aaron had a 20-year string of 20 or more home runs. After turning 35, he hit 245 home runs and from the ages 35 to 39 he hit at least 34 home runs a year. Over his 23-year Major League career, he averaged just 63 strikeouts a year, with his highest strikeout total being 97 in 1967. He hit .300 or better in 14 seasons, won the NL home run crown three times and tied for a fourth, led the league in RBI four times and won three Gold Gloves.

Aaron hit his 755 home runs off 310 different pitchers, including 12 Hall of Famers. He hit the most off of Hall of Famer Don Drysdale (17), the most in the month of July (152), the most against the Cincinnati Reds (97) and the most in the first inning (124). Aaron hit 400 solo home runs and hit seven of his 755 as a second baseman and had three pinch-hit home runs. He had only one three home run game, at San Francisco on June 21, 1959.

Aaron, a vice president and member of the Board of Directors of Turner Broadcasting and the Braves, is also the Vice President for Business Development for the Airport Channel. He serves on the National Board of the NAACP and the Sterling Committee of Morehouse College.

Aaron and his wife, the former Billye Suber, live in Atlanta. They have five children, Gail, Hank Jr., Lary, Dorinda and Ceci. Aaron was born in Mobile, Alabama, on February 5, 1934.

John Schuerholz

Executive Vice President & General Manager

The Atlanta Braves, who edged the Philadelphia Phillies by two games for the National League East crown in the 2001 regular season, became the first professional sports team in history to win 10 consecutive division titles. The Braves, with the best record in baseball (1,043-673, .608) over the past 11 years, had been tied with the Boston Celtics (1957-65) and the Los Angeles Lakers (1982-90) for the most titles in a row at nine.

In December of 2001, Baseball America honored the Braves as the most outstanding major league franchise of the past two decades with its 20th Anniversary Award of Excellence.

In 2001, the Braves withstood the challenge of the Phillies and New York Mets by winning two of three games from each of them the last nine days of the season. In 2000, the Braves won 95 games, becoming only the third team in major league history to record 90+ wins in at least nine straight completed seasons. The Braves won 103 games in 1999, becoming just the fourth major league team ever to win at least 100 games in three consecutive seasons. Since 1991, the Braves have won five National League pennants, one World Series and several organization of the year awards and have surpassed the 3,000,000 mark in attendance six times.

The team's successes are the result of an organizational commitment to excellence and a lot of hard work on the part of a lot of people. But, the Braves recognized the contributions of one individual and ensured that he would remain an integral part of their management team for years to come when, in March of 1998, they extended the contract of John Schuerholz, Executive Vice President and General Manager, through 2003. He has the longest current tenure (11 years) with the same organization among Major League general managers.

The Negro Leagues Baseball Museum recognized Schuerholz as the 2001 National League Executive of the Year with its Andrew "Rube" Foster Legacy Award.

The Braves 400 Club bestowed its Ivan Allen, Jr. "Mr. Baseball" award, presented to "the person who has contributed significantly to the promotion of baseball in the Atlanta area" to Schuerholz in February of 2000.

Since his arrival from the Kansas City Royals in October of 1990, Schuerholz has proven to be a man of action. The club annually makes changes to address various needs throughout the season. Tom Glavine and John Smoltz are the only two Braves players to have been around for all 10 division titles. This past off-season, Schuerholz added outfielder Gary Sheffield, third baseman Vinny Castilla and pitcher Albie Lopez to the roster, hired Terry Pendleton as hitting coach and kept Smoltz and Javy Lopez by having them sign new contracts. In 2001, Ken Caminiti, Rey Sanchez, Julio Franco and Rudy Seanez joined the Braves in July and August. In 2000, Schuerholz obtained pitcher John Burkett at the end of spring training and Andy Ashby and B. J. Surhoff for the second-half run. Chipper Jones, the N. L. MVP in 1999, signed a six-year contract in August of the year.

In 1999, Schuerholz acquired veteran left-handed pitcher Terry Mulholland and infielder Jose Hernandez from the Chicago Cubs at the trade deadline. Heading into the 1999 season, Schuerholz signed free agent Brian Jordan and traded for Bret Boone and Mike Remlinger. Jordan made his first All-Star appearance and set a career-high with 115 RBI and Remlinger earned 10 wins as a key member of the bullpen. In November of 1997 Schuerholz signed free agents Andres Galarraga and Walt Weiss to three-year contracts. Galarraga posted his third consecutive year with 40 or more home runs in 1998 and Weiss provided leadership out of the leadoff spot. Other players acquired before or during the 1998 season include Gerald Williams, Ozzie Guillen, Dennis Martinez and Greg Colbrunn. In March of 1997, Schuerholz acquired Kenny Lofton and Alan Embree from the Cleveland Indians and Michael Tucker and Keith Lockhart from the Kansas City Royals.

Glavine and Greg Maddux were signed to new contracts in 1997 after Smoltz had resigned in the off-season, keeping three pitchers who have won a total of seven Cy Young awards together for several years. When injuries weakened the Braves' pitching staff during 1996, Denny Neagle was acquired from the Pittsburgh Pirates for Jason Schmidt and minor leaguers Ron Wright and Corey Pointer. Pendleton and Luis Polonia were added to the roster a second time and Andruw Jones earned his way from Class A ball to the major leagues in 1996. During the 1995 season, Mike Devereaux, Polonia and Alejandro Pena became Braves. Marquis Grissom joined Atlanta in April of that season. The Braves traded three minor leaguers to the San Diego Padres for Fred McGriff in July of 1993. Nine games out of first place prior to McGriff's first game on July 20, the Braves went 51-17 the rest of the season en route to a then franchise-best 104-58 record.

During the 1992-1993 off-season, Maddux, who had won the Cy Young award with the Cubs in 1992 and would win it again in 1993-95, signed with the Braves as a free agent and Smoltz and Glavine signed long-term contracts. Jeff Reardon came on board when the bullpen experienced health problems in late 1992. Pena joined the team for the first time in 1991. In the spring of that year, Pendleton, Sid Bream, Rafael Belliard and Otis Nixon started wearing Braves uniforms. The man behind all these moves -- John Schuerholz.

As a result of the Braves' 1991 last-to-first performance, Schuerholz earned several awards. He was named baseball's Executive of the Year by UPI, the Boston Writers Association and the Maryland Tops in Sports group, Executive of the Year by the Georgia Securities Association and Georgian of the Year by Georgia Trend magazine.

A native of Baltimore, Schuerholz left a job as a junior high school teacher to join the Orioles in 1966. He moved to Kansas City two years later and, as an Administrative Assistant, was involved in the expansion draft that created the first-ever Royals roster. In 1970 he was named Assistant Farm Director and in 1975 became Farm Director. He was promoted to Director of Player Procurement and Development in 1976 and Vice President - Player Personnel in 1979. In October of 1981, at the age of 41, the Royals named him Executive Vice President and General Manager.

During Schuerholz's tenure with Kansas City, the Royals won one World Championship, two American League pennants (1980 and 1985) and six divisional crowns (1976, 1977, 1978, 1980, 1984 and 1985). The Sporting News, in a poll of baseball's general managers, selected Schuerholz the Major League Executive of the Year for 1985, when Kansas City won the World Series.

When the Braves won the 1995 World Series, Schuerholz achieved a unique distinction - he became the first executive to be General Manager of World Championship teams in both the National and American leagues. Since he was named General Manager of the Royals in 1981, his teams have more wins (1,709) than those of any other active general manager in the major leagues. Furthermore, during Schuerholz's career with Baltimore, Kansas City and Atlanta, he has been associated with three world champions (1966, 1985, 1995), eight pennant winners and 16 divisional crowns.

Schuerholz, a 1962 graduate of Towson University, currently serves on the school's Board of Visitors. He is active in YES! Atlanta, a program for disadvantaged youth and Camp Sunshine, a summer camp for kids with cancer. He and his wife, Karen, have a daughter, Gina, and a son, Jonathan.

Winningest Team in Major League Baseball Since 1991

Since Schuerholz's arrival from the Kansas City Royals in October of 1990, the Braves have won more games than any other team in baseball.

2002 Braves Manager & Staff

Under the guidance of Manager Bobby Cox, the Atlanta Braves captured an unprecedented 10th consecutive division title in 2001.

Bobby Cox #6

Manager

HT: 6' 0" WT: 185
BORN: 5/21/41 in Tulsa, OK
RESIDES: Marietta, GA

Bobby Cox, who has the longest tenure with his current club of any major league manager, again demonstrated in 2001 why he is among baseball's best. The Atlanta Braves, under his direction, won a division title for the 10th consecutive year, a feat no other professional sports team has ever accomplished.

With a series of injuries to key personnel and with three-quarters of the infield changing over the course of the season, the Braves still went 88-74 to finish 2.0 games in front of the Philadelphia Phillies in the National League East. Cox, who has 1,704 career wins (a franchise-best 1,349 with Atlanta, 355 with Toronto) moved into 12th place on the all-time managerial victory list. The Braves have won more games (1,043), in the past 11 years than any other team in baseball.

In 2000, the Braves were 95-67, becoming only the third team in major league history to win 90 or more games for nine straight years. In 1999, the Braves finished with a Major League best 103-59 record and completed their third consecutive season with at least 100 wins. Cox was named The Sporting News Manager of the Year for the third time as the Braves' skipper; he earned the same honor in 1991 and 1993. The eight division titles in the '90's led to five pennants (1991, 1992, 1995, 1996, 1999) and one World Championship (1995). Cox won his 1,500th game as a Major League manager when Atlanta beat St. Louis in 13 innings, 3-0, on August 28, 1999 in St. Louis.

In 1998, when the Braves won a franchise-record 106 games, Cox won his 1,000th game as a Braves manager on June 6 in Baltimore, became the franchise's winningest manager when he surpassed Frank Selee's mark of 1,004 with his 1,005th on June 16 at Turner Field against the Florida Marlins and won his 1,400th career game as a manager on August 26 at Houston.

The 1997 season saw Cox lead the Braves to a Major League high 101 wins and a baseball-best sixth straight division title. The team participated in a record 6th straight National League Championship Series, losing to the Marlins in six games. It marked the first time since 1993 that a team other than Atlanta represented the National League in the World Series.

In 1996, the Braves defended their World Championship against the New York Yankees. After jumping out to a 2 games to none lead, the Braves dropped the next four. Cox had guided the Braves to a franchise mark of 56 home wins in the last season played at Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium.

Cox brought the city of Atlanta its first major professional sports world championship in 1995 when the Braves defeated the Cleveland Indians, 4 games to 2, in the World Series. The victory also marked the first time a franchise won a World Series in three different cities. The team won an NL-best 25 games, including 18 after July 3, in its last at-bat.

In 1993, the Braves won a then franchise-record 104 games and became the first National League West team to win three straight divisional titles. The Sporting News named Cox N.L. Manager of the Year for the second time in three seasons.

The Braves' performance in 1991, when they went from worst to first and participated in one of the most dramatic World Series in history, earned Cox several postseason honors. Among others, the Associated Press named him Major League Manager of the Year. Cox became the first manager to earn that honor in both leagues, having also won it while with the Blue Jays in 1985.

Cox managed the Braves from 1978-81, compiling a 266-323 record and laying the groundwork for the club's National League West title in 1982. Cox began a four-year tenure as Toronto's manager in that season, lifting a habitual seventh-place team to within one game of attaining a 1985 World Series berth.

In 1982, Cox led the Blue Jays to a 78-84 mark, the best record in their six-year existence. Toronto improved to 89-73 each of the next two seasons and then won the American League East crown by going 99-62 in 1985. For his efforts that year, Cox was named Major League Manager of the Year by the Baseball Writers of America, The Sporting News and the Associated Press.

Cox returned to the Braves as General Manager in October of 1985 and oversaw a farm system which produced some of the team's current standouts. He added the field managing responsibilities on June 22, 1990, then devoted all his time to those duties when the Braves named John Schuerholz General Manager in October of that year.

Cox spent seven years in the Dodgers' farm system before being acquired by Atlanta late in 1966. After playing in 1967 for AAA Richmond, he was traded to the New York Yankees and beat out Mike Ferraro, the Yankees' outstanding spring training rookie, for the third base job in 1968. Cox made the Topps Rookie All-Star team that season, but lost his job to roommate Bobby Murcer in 1969.

Bad knees forced Cox to retire at the age of 30. He was appointed manager of the Yankees' Class A Fort Lauderdale club in 1971. His teams never finished lower than fourth in his six seasons in the Yankees' system. He won the Eastern League pennant and championship with West Haven in 1972 and placed second twice and third twice in four years at Syracuse, winning the International League's Governor's Cup in 1976. After serving as the Yankees' first base coach in 1977, Cox moved south to manage the Braves.

Cox was born May 21, 1941, at Tulsa, OK. He graduated from Selma (CA) High School in 1959 and attended Reedley (CA) Junior College. Cox, his wife, Pam, and three daughters, Keisha, Kami and Skyla, live in Marietta.

Pat Corrales #39

Dugout Coach

HT: 6' 1" WT: 220
BORN: 3/20/41 in Los Angeles, CA
RESIDES: Big Canoe, GA

In his 44th season in professional baseball, Pat Corrales is working his fourth season as the Braves' dugout coach. Corrales spent the previous nine seasons as the Braves' first base coach, after joining the team as an advance and special assignments scout on September 24, 1989. He was named to Atlanta's coaching staff on June 25, 1990, two days after Bobby Cox took over the managerial reins.

In his nine years as a major league manager, Corrales compiled an overall record of 572-634 (.474) with Texas, Philadelphia and Cleveland. His first job as a big league pilot came with the Rangers in 1978, when he replaced Billy Hunter with one game remaining in the season. Corrales went on to guide the Rangers to third and fourth place finishes in 1979 and 1980, respectively.

He was named manager of the Phillies in 1982, leading them to a second-place finish; he was replaced in 1983 just after the All-Star break, despite leading the N.L. East with a 43-42 mark. Less than two weeks later, Corrales found himself back in the dugout as the skipper of the Indians, becoming only the fourth manager in major league history to manage in both the American and National leagues in the same season.

He remained with the Tribe until midway through the 1987 campaign. In 1986, he led the Indians to an 84-78 record (their most wins since 1968) and finished 11.5 games out of first place (their closest finish since 1959). That club became only the 10th team in major league history to lose 100 games one year and finish .500 or better the next, and he was recognized for his work by placing fourth in the A.L. Manager of the Year balloting by the BBWAA.

Corrales, who has been selected as an All-Star coach seven times in his career, managed at Alexandria of the Texas League in 1975, before joining the Rangers for three seasons as a coach under Frank Lucchesi. He played in the majors for eight seasons as a catcher for the Phillies, Cards, Reds and Padres.

Corrales participated in clinics conducted by Major League Baseball International and NIKE in November of 1994 in Mexico.

Pat, his wife, Donna, and a son, Patrick, live in Big Canoe. Pat has four other children: Rene, Michele, Patricia and Jason.

Bullpen Coach

HT: 6' 0" WT: 180
BORN: 3/23/39 in Clinton, IA
RESIDES: Albany, GA

Bobby Dews, a member of the Braves organization as a manager, coach, instructor or administrator since 1975, joined Atlanta's staff for the third time when he was named third base coach December 9, 1996. This season will be his fourth straight as the Braves' bullpen coach.

Dews worked in Atlanta under Bobby Cox as a bullpen coach in 1979 and as third base coach in 1980-81 and as first base coach under manager Eddie Haas and as third base coach for Bobby Wine in 1985.

Prior to rejoining the major league staff in December of 1996, Dews had served as the Braves' minor league field coordinator since 1991, and, as such, was responsible for supervising instruction throughout the farm system. Chipper Jones and Javy Lopez are two of the current Braves who spent some of those years as Braves' minor leaguers.

Dews succeeded Hank Aaron as Atlanta's Director of Player Development in December of 1989, after having been the Assistant Director of Player Development for two years. He had been a roving minor league instructor in 1986 and 1987.

Appointed manager of Class A Greenwood of the Western Carolinas League in 1975, Dews spent eight of the next 11 years managing in the Braves' system, guiding five of his clubs to their respective playoffs. The AA Savannah Braves, who won the Southern League championship in 1978, earned Dews Manager of the Year honors. An infielder in the Cardinals' organization from 1960 through part of 1970, he actually began his managerial career in 1969 at Lewiston.

Dews, a native of Clinton, Iowa, graduated from Edison (GA) High School and attended Georgia Tech, where he was a standout basketball and baseball player. He earned a degree in English from West Georgia College in 1968. Bobby and his wife, the former Glenda Bolin, live in Albany, GA. They have one daughter, Dana.

Glenn Hubbard #17

First Base Coach

HT: 5' 7" WT: 170
BORN: 9/25/57 in Hahn AFB, Germany
RESIDES: Stone Mountain, GA

Glenn Hubbard returns for his fourth season as the club's first base coach. Prior to joining the major league staff, Hubbard spent the previous nine years coaching with the Braves' minor league affiliates: Bradenton (1990), Macon (1991-92, 1998) and Richmond (1993, 1995-97).

Hubbard wore a Braves uniform for 10 of his 12 major league seasons. In 1981 he set a then Atlanta Braves' record for second basemen with a .991 fielding percentage. His most successful year was in 1983, when he hit .263 and set career highs with 12 home runs and 70 RBI and was also named to the NL All-Star team. Hubbard lead all NL second basemen in double plays in 1982, 1985 and 1987. He ended his career playing with the 1988 pennant-winning and the 1989 World Champion Oakland A's.

Hubbard, the Braves 20th round selection in the 1975 June draft, was signed by Bill Wight. Hubbard began his career with Atlanta in 1978 when he was promoted after being named Rookie of the Year in Richmond. In only his second major league game, he participated in a triple play against Philadelphia on July 15, 1978. He hit his first major league home run on September 23, 1978, off Cincinnati's Manny Sarmiento. On April 14, 1985, he tied a major league record for assists in a game by a second baseman when he had 12 vs. the Padres. Hubbard holds the record with seven other second basemen.

In 1998 with Macon, Glenn was named as a coach on the South Atlantic League's postseason All-Star team.

Glenn was born in Hahn AFB in Germany and graduated from Lomand High School in Ogden, Utah. A four-sport athlete, participating in basketball, wrestling, football and baseball, he was inducted into the Utah Athletic Hall of Fame last November.

Glenn and his wife, Lynn, reside in Stone Mountain, GA. They have three sons: Jeremy, Matthew and Daniel.

Leo Mazzone #54

Pitching Coach

HT: 5' 10" WT: 185
BORN: 10/16/48 in Keyser, WV
RESIDES: Atlanta, GA

Leo Mazzone has been developing pitchers at various levels of the Braves' organization since 1979, but nothing has given him more satisfaction than the past 11 seasons.

The Braves' pitching staff has been no worse than second in the major leagues in ERA each year starting in 1992. This past season was no exception, as the Braves' staff led the N.L. and tied for second in the majors with a 3.59 ERA.

Greg Maddux became the second pitcher in major league history to win 15 or more games in at least 14 straight seasons. In 2000, Tom Glavine and Maddux made strong bids for the Cy Young Award as Glavine won at least 20 games for the 5th time in his career and Maddux won 19 for the fifth time and reeled off 39.1 consecutive innings of scoreless ball near the end of the season.

In 1999, fourth starter Kevin Millwood made a strong run for NL Cy Young honors, finishing third with 18 wins and a 2.68 ERA. The 1998 Braves starting rotation of Maddux, Glavine, John Smoltz, Denny Neagle and Millwood became only the third Major League staff with five 16-game winners, joining the 1902 Pittsburgh Pirates and 1923 Yankees, with Glavine claiming his second Cy Young award. Rookie Kerry Ligtenberg took over in the bullpen to lead the team with 30 saves and 75 appearances. In 1997, Neagle went 20-5 and placed third in the NL Cy Young voting. Smoltz won the 1996 National League Cy Young award. In 1995, Maddux won an unprecedented fourth straight Cy Young award. Each of the four starters accumulated at least 35 starts and 220 innings in 1993. In 1992, the Braves set a franchise record with 24 shutouts and Glavine won the N.L. Cy Young in 1991.

Mazzone was named the Braves' pitching coach for the second time on June 22, 1990, the day Bobby Cox replaced Russ Nixon as manager. Mazzone had reached the major league level for the first time in 1985, when, after an 18-year career as a minor league player, coach and manager, he joined Atlanta as a co-pitching coach.

After retiring as a pitcher at the end of the 1975 season, Mazzone managed Class A Corpus Christi in 1976 and 1977. He managed Class A Kinston of the Carolina League in 1978 and then took a position as a minor league pitching instructor in the Braves' organization from 1979-82. He worked as the pitching coach in Durham from 1983 to July 21, 1984, before winding up that season as Greenville's manager. He was a coach at Sumter and Greenville in 1986 and 1987, respectively, and served as Richmond's pitching coach from 1988 to June of 1990.

Mazzone pitched in the minors from 1967-75, with his best season coming with Class A Decatur in the Midwest League in 1969, when he went 15-10 with a 2.52 ERA. At AA Amarillo of the Texas League in 1972, Mazzone compiled a 2.62 ERA, but missed qualifying for the league ERA title by four innings pitched.

Mazzone co-authored a book with writer Jim Rosenthal entitled Pitch Like A Pro and has an instructional video out, Four Aces. Leo and wife Tina live in Atlanta. He has three sons: Anthony, Christopher and Nicholas.

Terry Pendleton #9

Hitting Coach

HT: 5' 9" WT: 200

BORN: 7/16/60 in Los Angeles, CA

RESIDES: Duluth, GA

Terry Pendleton, the National League's Most Valuable Player in 1991 and an All-Star third baseman in 1992 while playing for the Braves, was named the team's hitting coach on Nov. 6, 2001.

This is his first coaching position.

Signed as a free agent in December of 1990 by Executive Vice President and General Manager John Schuerholz, Pendleton played for the Braves from 1991 through 1994 and in part of 1996. He was a key factor in the Braves' turn-around from being the worst team in the major leagues in 1990 to a pennant-winning club the next year, as he batted an N.L.-best .319 with 22 home runs and 86 RBI. He tied for the league lead with 303 total bases, helping him earn Comeback Player of the Year honors, as well as the MVP award.

He was voted an All-Star starter in 1992, going .296-13-51 before the break and finishing the year with a .311 BA, 21 homers and a career-high 105 RBI to lead the Braves to another pennant. He led the N.L. with a .387 BA with runners in scoring position and had a career-best 199 hits, a franchise record for third basemen.

Pendleton, a switch-hitter, batted .287 with 71 home runs and 322 RBI in 593 games overall for Atlanta and .270 with 140 homers and 946 RBI in 1,893 games over a 15-year career with the St. Louis Cardinals, Braves, Florida Marlins, Cincinnati Reds and Kansas City Royals. He won Rawlings Gold Gloves in 1987 and 1989 while with St. Louis and in 1992 with Atlanta.

Originally selected by the Cardinals in the seventh round of the 1982 June draft, Pendleton, after his first four seasons with the Braves, signed with the Marlins as a free agent in April of 1995. Florida traded him back to Atlanta in exchange for outfielder Roosevelt Brown in August of 1996. Pendleton was signed as a free agent by the Reds in January of 1997 and the Royals in January of 1998. He retired as a player the next December.

Terry and his wife, Catherine, and their three children, Stephanie, Terry and Trinity live in Duluth, GA.

Ned Yost #5

Third Base Coach

HT: 6' 1" WT: 185
BORN: 8/19/55 in Eureka, CA
RESIDES: Marietta, GA

Ned Yost spent his third season as the Braves' third base coach in 2001 after having served as the Braves' bullpen coach since joining the Major League staff in 1991. He had spent 1988-90 managing Atlanta's Class A affiliate at Sumter. While there, he worked with several of the Braves' heralded prospects.

The Eureka, CA, native joined the Braves' organization in 1986, batting .248 in 80 games at Greenville and .294 in 8 games at Richmond. A catcher in his playing days, Yost retired after the 1987 season, closing out a 14-year career at Greenville and Richmond.

Yost was the Mets' first choice in the secondary phase of the 1974 draft and advanced to AAA Tidewater before being selected by Milwaukee in the minor league draft in December of 1977. He made his big-league debut with the Brewers in 1980 and served as a backup catcher for Milwaukee through the 1983 campaign. Yost saw action in the 1982 World Series, drawing a walk in his only plate appearance.

Traded to Texas after the 1983 season, Yost spent all of 1984 with the Rangers before being released in spring training the following year. Within a month, the Expos signed Yost as a free agent and assigned him to AAA Indianapolis. His final major league playing activity came when he was recalled by the Expos in the last month of the 1985 season.

Ned and his wife, Deborah, reside in Marietta, GA. They have four children: Ned IV, Josh, Jenny and Andrew.

2001 SEASON:--Missed the 2001 season recovering from back surgery.

2000:--Opened the year on Arizona's big league roster, appearing 4 times in relief (3 earned runs in 2.1 innings)...Recorded a save on opening night (April 4) against the Phillies, retiring the final hitter to preserve Randy Johnson's 6-4 victory...Was designated for assignment on April 21...Refused an outright to AAA (thus became a free agent and signed with St. Louis as a free agent on May 4)...Appeared in 5 games for the Redbirds, with his lone decision of the year a loss on May 7 in Cincinnati, allowing 4 runs on 3 hits in an inning of work...Was designated by St. Louis on May 28 and accepted outright to Memphis, appearing in 9 games of the AAA affiliate before being traded to Baltimore on June 28 for future considerations...Had contract purchased from AAA by the Orioles the day after the trade and was roughed up in 5 appearances for Baltimore, allowing 13 earned runs in just 4.2 innings...Was released on July 19, then signed a minor league contract with the D'Backs in mid-August...Appeared in 3 games for Tucson (AAA) and had contract purchased by Diamondbacks on August 30 as his season came full circle, with 4 pitching stops in between...Finished the year with 4 relief appearances for the Diamondbacks, allowing 3 runs in his first outing on September 2 against Florida, then tossing shutout ball over his final 3.0 innings...Included was an impressive outing on September 23 in Pacific Bell Park, fanning Bill Mueller, Barry Bonds and Jeff Kent in order.

1999:--The veteran hurler was acquired by the Diamondbacks near the end of spring training on March 30, bringing some stability to the middle relief role, as Holmes had over 9 years of experience, the majority of which had been out of the pen...he posted wins in consecutive outings during a late-April road trip, winning with 2.0 innings of 1-hit relief in Houston on the 28th, then 2 nights later getting credit for the 3-2 victory over the Brewers in County Stadium...Darren's best stretch came from May 10-May 31, appearing in 8 games, tossing 7.2 innings of shutout relief, allowing only 3 hits while fanning 6...Included was a 3-K performance in San Francisco on May 18, retiring all 6 men he faced in a 2-inning stint...He ended the streak with a win in Montreal on May 31, retiring the only man he faced in an 8-6 triumph in 10 innings...Unfortunately, June wasn't as prosperous, losing his first 2 appearances, then as the month wore on he was plagued by a lower back strain that eventually landed Holmes on the disabled list on June 28 (retroactive to the 24th)...His return to work was as brief as they could come, as Darren was activated on July 15, appeared for an inning in Texas on the 17th, then went back on the shelf on the 18th, remaining on the D.L. until August 11...Once deemed healthy, it took him some time to get back into the flow, allowing 5 earned runs over his first 5.0 innings, spanning 5 outings...Darren then posted his second win of the year over the Brewers in Milwaukee, going 0.2 of an inning on September 7, an 11-9 triumph...Holmes inherited 28 runners during the campaign, with only 7 scoring, 3 of which came in on one swing when he was touched for a grand slam by Rafael Palmeiro on June 5, his second and last blown save of the year.

1999 POSTSEASON HIGHLIGHTS:--Darren appeared once in the post-season, a tough outing at Shea in the third game of the series, facing 5 men, allowing a hit and 3 walks (1 intentional), with all 4 runners scoring.

1998:--Signed as a free agent with the Yankees and was winless with a pair of saves in 34 appearances, his only season in the Apple...Earned his first save on July 22 against Detroit, tossing 3.0 shutout innings in a 13-2 win...was placed on the disabled list on August 1, missing 34 games due to a bulging disc in his lower back...Made a pair of rehab appearances with Tampa...Was not included on New York's post-season roster.

1997:--Completed a 5-year stint with Colorado, going 9-2 with 3 saves in 42 games (6 starts)...Hit first major league homer in Coors Field on April 13 off of Montreal's Carlos Perez...made first major league start on April 20, snapping a streak of 319 consecutive relief appearances, earning a 9-2 win over the Braves, going 6.0 innings allowing a run on 5 hits, with no walks and 5 K's...Was placed on the D.L. on April 30 with sore right elbow...Returned on May 15, making 10 relief appearances before next start on June 12 at Seattle...Tossed a career-high 8.0 innings in a 6-2 win at Los Angeles on June 24...Fanned a career-best 8 on July 5 at San Francisco.

1995:--Led staff with 14 saves in a career-high 68 appearances...Had streak of 15.1 consecutive scoreless innings from June 5-July 9...Converted 10 saves in 13 outings from July 3-31 after Ruffin went down with elbow injury...From early-June through July, he allowed just 2 earned runs in 24.1 innings (0.74 ERA)...Stranded 25 of 33 inherited runners (76%)...He was the winning pitcher in Colorado's only post-season victory, getting the triumph in relief in game #3 of the Division Series in Atlanta.

1994:--Opened the year as the closer, but made only 29 appearances due to inflamed right elbow that required scoping for removal of a bone spur...Struggled in May and was optioned to Colorado Springs for 11 days...Returned on May 28, but did not work much due to elbow injury...Was placed on the D.L. in late-July and did not return.

1993:--Was Colorado's third choice in the expansion draft, then tied for ninth in N.L. with 25 saves (29 chances)...Earned the first save in Rockies history on April 23 vs. Florida, then struggled with a 17.19 ERA and was optioned to AAA on May 5...After 3 appearances with Colorado Springs, he returned to the majors and finished going 3-1 with 23 saves and 2.43 in last 53 outings... Earned Rockie-of-the-Month honors for August, earning saves in 9 consecutive appearances...Did not allow an earned run in last 11 games (13.2 innings), and converted 22 of last 23 chances.

1991:--Appeared once for Denver before recall to Brewers...Fanned 6 in his A.L. debut on April 14 at Toronto...Earned first big league save on May 16 at Minnesota...Was disabled in July with hamstring injury, then allowed 17 earned runs in next 11.2 innings...Finished strong, allowing 1 earned run in last 15.2 IP (0.57 ERA).

1990:--Spent most of year with Albuquerque (AAA), making 56 relief appearances, the first season since 1985 that he worked exclusively out of pen... Appeared 14 times for the Dodgers, with major league debut taking place on September 1 in Montreal with 2.0 shutout innings...Was traded to Milwaukee on December 20 for catcher Bert Heffernan.

1989:--Used primarily as a starter, splitting time between AA and AAA.

Manager: Randy Ingle begins his first season as the skipper of Myrtle Beach after managing Macon to a 72-61 record in 2001. Ingle also managed for two successful seasons (1999-2000) with the Braves Triple-A affiliate in Richmond. Ingle, who has twice been named the organization's Manager of the Year (1996 & '97), will be in his eleventh season as a manager in the Braves' minor league system. Three years ago he made the move up to Richmond after leading the Greenville Braves to a 67-72 record in 1998, which included a 37-32 second-place finish in the second half. In 1997 Ingle led the Greenville Braves to the Southern League Championship and was named Southern League Manager of the Year. In 1996 he led the Durham Bulls of the Carolina League to a 73-66 record, including a 38-31 first place finish in the first half. Ingle's previous managerial stints also include stops at Macon (1993) and Pulaski (1990-1992). Ingle, a former infielder, played within the Braves farm system from 1979 to 1987, including an appointment as a player-coach at Greenville in 1987. Randy and his wife, Rebecca, reside in Forest City, NC with their two children, Taylor and Meghan.

Pitching Coach: Bruce Dal Canton returns for his fourth season as pitching coach with Myrtle Beach. In 2001, his pitching staff finished with a 71-67 record and a 3.36 ERA. In 2000 his Pelicans' pitching staff led the Carolina League with a team ERA of 2.51. Prior to joining Myrtle Beach in 1999, Dal Canton worked with the Danville 97's in the same capacity. Dal Canton served as pitching coach with the Greenville Braves from 1994-1997, which included a Southern League Championship in 1997. Dal Canton, 57, was pitching coach for the Richmond Braves from 1991 to 1993 after serving the major league staff as its pitching coach from 1987 to 1990. Dal Canton has been a fixture in the organization since 1982 when he joined the Atlanta Braves as a roving minor league pitching instructor. He was pitching coach at Savannah in 1983, Greenville in 1984, and Richmond in 1985 and 1986. Over an 11-year major league career beginning in 1967, Dal Canton compiled a 51-49 log as a spot starter with the Pirates, Royals, Braves and White Sox. Primarily a reliever with Pittsburgh, Dal Canton went 20-8 for the Pirates between 1967 and 1970. He pitched over a year without a loss, recording a 7-0 mark from June 29, 1969 to July 20, 1970. With Kansas City, Dal Canton set a Royals' club record (later broken by Steve Busby in 1974) when he retired 23 consecutive batters against the Yankees on August 14, 1972. Signed by the Braves after his release by Kansas City in 1975, Dal Canton pitched in Atlanta through 1976. The White Sox signed him as a free agent in April of 1977, and after his release in June of 1978, he served as the White Sox pitching coach for the remainder of the season. Dal Canton attended California University of Pennsylvania and the University of West Virginia, earning a B.S. degree in Education and a Master's Degree in Biology. Bruce and his wife, Helene, reside in Carnegie, PA.

In his first season as the Marlins' hitting coach, the club improved its team batting average by 15 points. From 1993-1998 Maloof served as the organization's Roving Hitting Coordinator, and in 1992 he was awarded the Carl Barger Award in 1992 for excellence in Player Development. Prior to joining the Marlins, Maloof spent 12 years in the San Diego Padre's organization, where he managed six seasons, winning the Texas League Championship with Beaumont in 1983.

Maloof was selected in the 27th round of the 1971 amateur draft by Minnesota and played eight minor league seasons at first base and outfield with the Twins, Reds and Padres. He hit over .300 in five of his eight minor league seasons, topping .400 mark once in 1971. In 1999, Albert led the GCL Braves to a 27-33 mark. Rick Albert, a West Seneca, New York native, has been a player, manager or coach within the Atlanta Braves organization every year since 1972. In previous managerial stops within the Atlanta Braves farm system, Albert, 50, managed at Burlington (1988), Anderson (1983-1984), and Pulaski (1982). In addition, Albert has coached at various levels within the Braves farm system, including Richmond (1987), Durham (1994), Eugene (1996), Bradenton (1978-1981, 1989-1991), and the complex-based Gulf Coast Braves (1992, 1993, 1995). Rick, his wife, Veronica, and their three children, Keith, Luke, and Jill, reside in Hollywood, FL.

Pitching Coach: Ed Watt returns as pitching coach for the Gulf Coast Braves for the 12th straight season and his 13th overall with the Atlanta Braves. Watt will be teaming up again with Michael Perez to develop a group of young pitchers just coming into the Atlanta Braves minor league system. Watt joined the Braves organization in 1990 when he was pitching coach at Burlington of the Appalachian League. Prior to joining the Braves, Watt served as a minor league manager with the Padres (1978-1981) and as a pitching coach with the Philadelphia Phillies (1982-1985) and Houston Astros (1986-1989). Watt, a former crafty right-handed pitcher, pitched 10 seasons in the major leagues with the Baltimore Orioles (1966-1973), Philadelphia Phillies (1974), and Chicago Cubs (1975). Watt, 59, played on three World Series teams including the 1970 World Champion Baltimore Orioles who defeated the Cincinnati Reds. Eddie and his wife, Betty, reside in North Bend, Nebraska. They have two daughters, Tina and Tammy, and one son, Ed.

Pitching Coach: Mike Perez will share pitching coach duties with Ed Watt during the year 2002 for the fourth straight season with the Gulf Coast Braves. Last year the Braves finished fifth in the 14-team league with a 2.80 team ERA. In 1999, under the direction of Perez and Watt a pair of Braves (Colton & Evert) finished 1-2 in the league's ERA race. Perez, a former right-handed relief pitcher, pitched in the major leagues with the St. Louis Cardinals (1990-1994), Chicago Cubs (1995-1996) and Kansas City Royals (1997) organizations, appearing in 316 games (all in relief) while compiling a 24-16 record and 22 career saves. A native of Yauco, Puerto Rico, Perez was selected by the St. Louis Cardinals in the 12th round of the 1986 June draft out of Troy (AL) State University. Mike, 36, resides in Ellisville, MO during the off-season.

Coach: Sixto Lezcano begins his third season in the Braves' organization and second season with the Gulf Coast League Braves. After seven years as a member of the Kansas City Royals coaching staff, Lezcano spent 2000 as manager of the Braves affiliate in the Carolina League. Lezcano served as the Royals' Minor League Outfield Instructor from 1997 through 1999. Prior to being an instructor, Lezcano was a coach at the Class A Wilmington Blue Rocks from 1994 through 1996. Braves: 1952-66 Born: October 13, 1931
Batted: L Birthplace: Texarkana, TX
Threw: R Third Base, First Base,
Ht.: 6-1 Wt.: 200 Outfield

Mathews was the only Brave in franchise history to play for the team on the major league level in Boston, Milwaukee, and Atlanta. He was signed in 1949 by Johnny Moore at the age of 17 and by the age of 20 became the Braves' regular third baseman. During his Hall of Fame career spanning 17 years, Mathews appeared in three World Series, was a nine-time National League All-Star, and led the majors in home runs in '53 with 47 and '59 with 46. He twice finished second in the National League MVP voting, in 1953 to Roy Campanella and in 1959 to Ernie Banks. Mathews averaged slightly over 30 home runs per season during his career, 14 times he hit 20 home runs or more, 10 times he hit 30 or more, and four times he hit 40 or more. His franchise records include: most RBIs in a season since 1900 (135 in 1953), tied for most consecutive games with an RBI (8 in 1954), most career walks (1,444), most home runs on the road (30 in 1953), and tied with Hank Aaron for most home runs in a season with 47. The Braves' traded Mathews to Houston in 1967 where he reached the 500 home run level. He was subsequently traded to the Detroit Tigers late in the year to help with the pennant chase and appeared in his third World Series. Eddie finished his playing career with Detroit in 1968. Mathews returned to Atlanta in 1971 as a coach under Luman Harris and replaced him as manager in 1972. He managed into the 1974 season accumulating a record of .149-161-1 in 311 games for a .481 winning percentage. In his only full season as manager in 1973, the Braves placed fifth with a record of 76-85-1. Inducted into the Braves Hall of Fame in August of 1999. He passed away February 18, 2001.

Batted: R Birthplace: Portland, OR Threw: R Outfield, First Base,

Murphy was the Braves' No. 1 (and fifth overall) draft pick in 1974. Originally signed as a catcher, Murphy was moved to the outfield by Bobby Cox in 1980. The move helped as Murphy averaged just under 30 HRs and just under 90 RBIs from 1980 to 1990. During those 11 years, Murphy won back-to-back league MVP awards in 1982 & 1983, appeared in seven All-Star games, leading all players in votes in 1985, won five Gold Gloves, and appeared in 740 consecutive games from September 26, 1981 through July 8, 1986. Murphy's 15-year career with the Braves came to an end on August 4, 1990, when he was traded to Philadelphia. The Braves received Jeff Parrett, Jim Vatcher, and Victor Rosario for Murphy and Tommy Greene. Murphy played in only 18 games with Philadelphia in 1992 due to knee problems and appeared in 26 games for the Colorado Rockies in 1993 before retiring. Murphy holds 13 Atlanta franchise records including most home runs (371), RBIs (1,143), hits (1,901), runs (1,103), and games (1,926). Inducted into the Braves Hall of Fame in August of 2000.

The Braves in the World Series

1914 -- Boston 4 games, Philadelphia 0

Manager George Stallings' "Miracle Braves", who climbed out of the cellar in July to win the pennant, swept Connie Mack's great Philadelphia Athletics in four games. The Braves were built around the pitching trio of Dick Rudolph, Bill James and George Tyler and the second base combination of Johnny Evers and Rabbit Maranville. Catcher Hank Gowdy, who batted .243 for the season, had a .545 average for the Series, including a homer, triple, three doubles and a single.

1948 -- Cleveland 4 games, Boston 2

The Braves, under Billy Southworth, won their first National League pennant in 34 years, but lost the Series to Lou Boudreau and the Indians. Gene Bearden, a Navy veteran of World War II, was Cleveland's pitching hero. Bob Feller allowed Boston only two hits in the opening game but lost it to Johnny Sain, 1-0. Boston's only other victory was in the fifth game, 11-5, as Bob Elliott smashed successive homers off Feller.

1957 -- Milwaukee 4 games, New York 3

Sensational Lew Burdette had three victories and pitched 24 consecutive scoreless innings to defeat a New York team that was making its eighth Series appearance in nine years under the leadership of Casey Stengel. Warren Spahn was the winning pitcher in Milwaukee's other victory. Eddie Mathews' tenth-inning homer won the fourth game after the famous Nippy Jones shoe polish incident. Burdette started the seventh and final game after Spahn was felled by the flu, and with only two days rest, pitched a 5-0 shutout.

1958 -- New York 4 games, Milwaukee 3

The Yankees, gaining revenge for their defeat the previous year, carried the Series to seven games and then won one of their greatest triumphs in Series play. They became only the second team in history to come from a three-games-to-one deficit and win the Fall Classic. Hank Bauer led the Yankees with 10 hits and eight RBI, while pitcher Bob Turley won the fifth game, saved the sixth and won the seventh. Warren Spahn won two and Lew Burdette one for the Braves.

1991 -- Minnesota 4 games, Atlanta 3

After completing their unprecedented ascents from last place in 1990 to the World Series in 1991, the Braves and Twins staged a Fall Classic epic of the first order. Four of the last five games were decided on the final pitch and five by one run, with three games going into extra innings. The Twins captured the first two contests at Minnesota before the Braves roared back by sweeping all three games in Atlanta. Braves' consensus MVP Mark Lemke was the catalyst, as he singled in the game-winning run in Game 3, scored the game-winner in Game 4 and tripled twice more in Game 5 on the way to a .417 Series batting average. Lonnie Smith also became the first player in N.L. Series history to homer in three straight games. The Braves returned to Minnesota needing just one more win, but Kirby Puckett and MVP Jack Morris led the Twins to consecutive wins and the championship.

1992 -- Toronto 4 games, Atlanta 2

The Braves literally became "America's Team" as they met the Toronto Blue Jays in the first International World Series, with the Jays claiming the championship in six games. Atlanta suffered four one-run defeats, giving the Braves seven consecutive one-run losses in World Series play (last three setbacks to Twins in 1991 were also by one run). The Braves began the Series in positive fashion, beating '91 Series nemesis Jack Morris in the opener, 3-1, behind Damon Berryhill's 6th-inning, three-run homer and complete game, four-hitter by Tom Glavine. Toronto answered back in Game 2 with a come-from-behind 5-4 win, sparked by a 9th-inning, pinch-hit homer by Ed Sprague. The Jays saw the momentum of their comeback win carry over to Toronto, limiting the Braves to a total of three runs over Games 3&4, giving the Jays a commanding three-games-to-one lead. Lonnie Smith's grand slam sparked a 7-2 win in Game 5 to keep the Braves' hopes alive. The Series returned to Atlanta, and the Braves were able to tie Game 6 in the bottom of the 9th on an Otis Nixon single, but the Jays prevailed, 4-3 in 11 innings, leaving the Braves as runners-up for the second consecutive year. Deion Sanders starred for the Braves in defeat, hitting .533 (8x15) with five stolen bases.

1995 -- Atlanta 4 games, Cleveland 2

The Braves affirmed their standing as baseball's team of the 1990's by capturing Atlanta's first championship in a major professional sport by defeating 100-game winner Cleveland in six games. Atlanta's pitching held the American League hitting leaders to a .179 batting average. Tom Glavine earned MVP honors as he notched wins in Game 2 and the decisive Game 6, allowing two earned runs and striking out 11 in 14 innings. The Braves captured Game 1 of the series at home, 3-2, behind Greg Maddux's two-hitter, Fred McGriff's homer in his first World Series at-bat and a Rafael Belliard suicide squeeze bunt. In Game 2 Glavine picked up a 4-3 win as catcher Javy Lopez slugged a game-deciding two-run homer. Cleveland took Game 3 at home, 7-6, in 11 innings, with John Smoltz lasting only 2.1 innings. After falling to Atlanta in Game 4, 5-2, behind a fine pitching effort by Steve Avery, the Indians avoided elimination at home by defeating Maddux, 5-4, in Game 5. The Braves won their first World Series in three tries since moving to Atlanta by winning Game 6, 1-0, behind Glavine's superb one-hit, eight-inning performance. David Justice provided the offense with a dramatic right-field home run blast in the sixth inning, and Mark Wohlers nailed down the save, his second of the series. Marquis Grissom collected nine hits in the series, giving him 25 post-season hits (11 Division Series, 5 NLCS), the most ever in a post-season. Grissom hit safely in all 14 post season contests, the longest batting streak ever in one post-season. Third baseman Chipper Jones finished the post-season 19-for-53 (.358, 3 HR), setting a major league record for post-season hits by a rookie. Ryan Klesko became the first player ever to homer in three straight World Series road games. It was the third World Championship in the history of the franchise, making the Braves the first team in history to win world titles in three different cities, the 1995 Braves joining their predecessors in Boston in 1914 and Milwaukee in 1957.

1996 -- New York 4 games, Atlanta 2

All signs pointed towards a second straight world championship for the Braves as Atlanta captured the first two games in Yankee Stadium, but an inspired New York team rallied to win the last four contests and the title. Andruw Jones became an immediate World Series legend as he homered in his first two AB in game one (3 x 4, 2 HR, 5 RBI), leading the Braves to a 12-1 triumph. Oakland's Gene Tenace (1972) is the only other player to perform that feat. At 19 years, 6 months and 28 days, Jones became the youngest player ever to homer in a Fall Classic. Greg Maddux shut down the Yankees in Game 2, 4-0, allowing only 6 hits and no walks in 8.0 innings. Of the 24 outs recorded by Maddux, 2 were strikeouts and 21 others came on ground balls. Fred McGriff had 3 RBI in game 2, after getting 2 in game one, to give him 15 RBI for the post-season, a new major league mark. He finished with 16 RBI in the post-season. Including the final three victories over the Cards in the LCS, Atlanta had outscored its opponents, 48-2, in its last five games. In Atlanta, the Yankees' Bernie Williams broke a 1-1 tie with a 2-run homer in the 8th inning of game three, leading New York to a 5-2 win. In Game 4, the Braves held a 6-0 lead entering the 6th inning, but three Yankee runs in the frame cut Atlanta's lead in half. Still, the Braves held a 6-3 lead in the 8th, when New York's Jim Leyritz reached Mark Wohlers for a 3-run homer to tie the game at 6-6. Two 10th-inning runs by the Yankees proved decisive, and the Series was knotted at two games each after the longest game by time (4 hours, 17 minutes) in World Series history. The final game ever played in Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium saw New York's Andy Pettitte outduel John Smoltz in game five, 1-0, the only score coming on a 4th-inning unearned run. The Series returned to New York, where the Yankees wrapped up the championship by tagging Maddux for 3 runs in the 3rd in their 3-2 victory. The Braves lost the Series despite standout performances by their top three starting pitchers (Smoltz: 0.64 ERA; Maddux: 1.72 ERA; Glavine: 1.29 ERA), and individual heroes on offense by Marquis Grissom (.444 BA) and Andruw Jones (.400 BA).

1999 -- New York 4 games, Atlanta 0

In a rematch of the 1996 World Series, the Braves were held to 9 runs in a 4-game sweep by the Yankees. Greg Maddux carried a 1-0 lead into the 8th inning of Game 1, thanks to a Chipper Jones homer in the 4th, but the Yankees parlayed 3 hits, 3 walks and 2 errors into 4 runs for a 4-1 victory. Jones' homer was Atlanta's only hit in the contest until Bret Boone's 9th-inning single. After the offense's 2-hit performance in Game 1, manager Bobby Cox shook up the lineup, inserting Ozzie Guillen, Keith Lockhart and Greg Myers, but were held scoreless until the 9th inning of a 7-2 loss. Kevin Millwood was tagged for 5 runs (4 ER) on 8 hits in only 2.0 IP, marking his shortest outing of the season. A change of venue initially aided the offense in Game 3 at New York, as Bret Boone stroked 3 doubles in the first 4 innings to lead the Braves to a 5-1 lead. A flu-weakened Tom Glavine allowed solo homers to Chad Curtis in the 5th and Tino Martinez in the 7th to narrow Atlanta's lead to 5-3, before the Yankees tied the score at 5-5 in the 8th on a 2-run homer by Chuck Knoblauch, knocking Glavine out of the game. A scoreless 9th sent the contest into extra frames, with Curtis striking again, this time belting a leadoff homer off Mike Remlinger to give the Yankees their third straight win. The Braves, despite collecting 14 hits, were blanked over the final 6 innings. In Game 4, Roger Clemens shut out Atlanta over the first 7 innings of Game 4, and the Yankees' 3-run 3rd proved decisive in the 4-1 finale. John Smoltz provided a stellar effort (7.0 IP, 5 H, 3 R, 3 ER, 3 BB, 11 K), but couldn't prevent the Braves' 8th straight loss in the World Series, dating back to Game 3 of the 1996 Fall Classic.

The Braves in the Championship Series

1969 -- New York 3 games, Atlanta 0

Atlanta became the first Western Division champion by winning 77 percent of its games in September, finishing the year with a 93-69 record. New York then swept the three-game Championship Series from the Braves.

1982 -- St. Louis 3 games, Atlanta 0

First-year manager Joe Torre got the Braves off to a Major League record 13 consecutive wins at the start of the season en route to the club's first divisional title in 13 years. St. Louis swept the Braves in the Championship Series as Atlanta was outscored 17-5 in the three games.

1991 -- Atlanta 4 games, Pittsburgh 3

Led by the sensational pitching of Steve Avery and John Smoltz, Atlanta overcame a three-games-to-two deficit on the road and won its first-ever National League pennant. Avery landed MVP honors after setting an NLCS record with 16.1 scoreless innings while winning 1-0 decisions in Games 2 and 6; Smoltz fired a six-hit shutout in Game 7 in the Braves' 4-0 clincher. In the best pitching exhibition ever seen in NLCS play, Braves' hurlers held the Pirates scoreless the last 22 innings of the series, and the last 27 innings at Pittsburgh, on the way to a 1.57 ERA against the league's top offense.

1992 -- Atlanta 4 games, Pittsburgh 3

Francisco Cabrera's pinch-hit, two-out single in the bottom of the 9th scored the tying and winning runs in the Braves' miraculous 3-2 win over Pittsburgh in Game 7. NLCS MVP John Smoltz allowed one run on four hits over 8.0 innings in a 5-1 Braves win in the opener, and Ron Gant's grand slam highlighted a 13-5 pounding of the Bucs in Game 2. The Pirates captured Game 3, 3-2 behind Tim Lincecum's knuckleball, but Smoltz and the Braves won Game 4, 6-4. Pittsburgh evened the playoffs at three games each with 7-1 and 13-4 wins in the next two games, respectively, to set the stage for the Game 7 drama. With their improbable 9th-inning comeback, climaxed by Cabrera's hit and Sid Bream's slide home, the Braves made history, becoming the first Major League team to win a decisive post-season game while trailing before the final pitch.

1993 -- Philadelphia 4 games, Atlanta 2

The Braves saw their two-year reign as National League champions come to an end when the Phillies prevailed in a six-game series. Atlanta rebounded from losing the opener and scored 23 runs over the next two games to take a two-games-to-one advantage. Danny Jackson outdueling John Smoltz in Game 4, to even the series at two games each. In Game 5, the Braves scored three runs in the bottom of the ninth to tie the contest, but Phillies' outfielder Lenny Dykstra hit a 10th-inning homer, that gave the Phillies the victory and a one game lead as the series returned to Philadelphia. Atlanta's hopes for a seventh game were dashed in the first inning of Game 6, when Greg Maddux was hobbled after being struck by a Mickey Morandini line drive. The Phillies won the pennant with a 6-3 victory in Game 6. Fred McGriff led the Braves in defeat with a .435 batting average.

1995 -- Atlanta 4 games, Cincinnati 0

The Braves returned as the National League representative in the World Series for the third time in the last four fall classics by sweeping the Reds, the first four-game sweep in NLCS history. Atlanta won Game 1 at Cincinnati in 11 innings, 2-1, after rallying to tie the game, 1-1, in the top of the ninth. Eventual MVP winner Mike Devereaux, an August acquisition from the Chicago White Sox, provided the game-winning single in the 11th. Game 2 also was forced into extra frames as the Braves prevailed in 10 innings at Riverfront, 6-2. Javy Lopez provided the finishing touches with a 3-run home run in the 10th. Back in Atlanta in Game 3, Greg Maddux held the Reds to one run over eight innings on the way to a 5-2 victory. Rookie sensation Chipper Jones went 3-for-4, with a home run and two RBI, and catcher Charlie O'Brien also added a 3-run home run to lead the Braves. Starting pitcher Steve Avery nailed down the sweep in Game 4 by leading the Braves to a 6-0 shutout, avenging a sub-par regular season for him. Avery became the first pitcher in NLCS annals to start three shutouts (also Games 3 and 6 in 1991). Devereaux, forced into the starting lineup after an ailing knee sidelined right-fielder David Justice, hit a three-run homer in the seventh inning.

1996 -- Atlanta 4 games, St. Louis 3

The Braves added another chapter to their post-season saga of the '90s by becoming the first NL team to rebound from a three-games-to-one deficit in the LCS by crushing the Cardinals, 32-1, over the final three games. Game one saw Javy Lopez break a 2-2 tie in the 8th with a bases-loaded, 2-run single, giving the Braves a 4-2 victory behind John Smoltz

(8.0 IP, 5 H, 2 R, 2 ER, 2 BB, 6 K). Chipper Jones led the Braves' attack by going 4 x 4, and Mark Wohlers recorded his 4th save in 4 appearances in the '96 post-season. The momentum in the series shifted in game two when Gary Gaetti's 7th-inning grand slam off Greg Maddux turned a 4-3 Cards' lead into a comfortable 8-3 victory. In Game 3 Ron Gant homered twice to account for all the Cards' runs in a 3-2 win. Atlanta seemed to be in control in Game 4, leading 3-0 behind Denny Neagle with 2 outs and no one on in the St. Louis 7th, but before the 3rd out the Redbirds fought back to tie the score and claim the lead for good in the 8th on a solo shot by Brian Jordan. With their backs to the wall in Game 5, the Braves struck for five 1st-inning runs en route to a 14-0 rout, sending the series back to Atlanta. Lopez led the Braves' attack by going 4 x 5 with 2 doubles and a homer, while Mark Lemke added 4 hits and Fred McGriff homered in the club's LCS-record 22-hit attack. Game 6 was vintage Maddux as the four-time Cy Young winner blanked the Cardinals through 7.0 innings en route to a 3-1 win. Maddux (7.2 IP, 6 H, 1 R, 1 ER, 0 BB, 7 K) teamed with Wohlers (2nd save of LCS) to hold the Cards in check; Wohlers' 8th-inning wild pitch accounted for the only run allowed by the Braves over the last three games. In Game 7 the outcome was never in doubt after the Braves scored 6 in the first, capped by Tom Glavine's 3-run triple past a diving Gant. The 15-0 finale broke the Braves' own LCS record for runs in a game and sent the Braves to their fourth World Series out of the last five played. The Braves became the first NL club to win 4 pennants in 5 completed seasons since the Brooklyn Dodgers in 1952-53-55-56. Lopez was named series MVP after batting .542 (13 x 24) with 5 doubles, 2 homers and 6 RBI.

1997 -- Florida 4 games, Atlanta 2

The Braves, appearing in a record 6th straight LCS, were denied their third straight World Series berth when the Florida Marlins upended Atlanta in six games. Atlanta lost the series despite outpitching Florida .253 to .199. Greg Maddux, who allowed only 1 unearned run all season, took the loss in Game 1 when the Marlins reached him for 5 runs, all unearned, in a 5-3 loss. Tom Glavine combined with Mike Cather and Mark Wohlers to hold the Marlins to 3 hits in a 7-1 victory in Game 2, as Ryan Klesko and Chipper Jones both homered to lead the Braves' 13-hit attack. With the series shifting to Miami, the Marlins took a two-games-to-one advantage with a 5-2 triumph in Game 3, as Charles Johnson broke a 2-2 tie with a 3-run double off John Smoltz in the 6th inning. Game 4 saw Denny Neagle blank the Marlins on 4 hits, 4-0, enabling the Braves to even the series at 2 games apiece. Combined with his 3.0 scoreless innings in relief in game 1, Neagle pitched 12.0 innings of shutout ball in the NLCS, allowing only 5 hits. Livan Hernandez gave the Marlins the upper hand with a complete-game, 2-1 victory in Game 5, allowing only 3 hits and notching a NLCS record 15 strikeouts. The Marlins won the pennant when the series returned to Atlanta by taking a 7-4 decision in Game 6, sparked by a 4-run 1st inning against Glavine. Keith Lockhart led the Braves in defeat by hitting .500 (8 x 16) in 5 games.

1998 -- San Diego 4 games, Atlanta 2

Atlanta fought back from a 3 games to none deficit, but fell short of an unprecedented comeback as the Padres prevailed in 6 games. Braves entered bottom of 9th of Game 1 trailing 2-1, before tying the game against star closer Trevor Hoffman on Andrew Jones' sacrifice fly. Ken Caminiti responded in the top of the 10th with a solo shot off Kerry Ligtenberg, giving the Padres a 3-2 victory. Kevin Brown gave the Padres a spectacular effort in Game 2, holding the Braves to three singles in a 3-0 triumph, marking the first time since 1969 the Braves had dropped the first 2 games of an NLCS at home. Atlanta's offense didn't benefit immediately with the change of scenery as the series moved west, with San Diego taking a commanding three games to none lead with a 4-1 victory over a Braves squad that had managed only three runs over the first 28 innings of the series. Clutch hitting remained elusive, with the Braves loading the bases three times in Game 3 without managing to score in any of those opportunities. Atlanta appeared to be on the verge of being swept in Game 4 when, trailing 3-2 entering the seventh inning, the offense finally awoke with a six-run outburst, with an Andres Galarraga grand slam capping the 8-3 win. Braves repeated late-inning heroics in the eighth inning of Game 5 when Michael Tucker erased a 4-2 deficit with a 3-run homer off Kevin Brown, who was appearing in a rare relief role for the Padres. Atlanta took a 3-run lead into bottom of the ninth, but a 2-run homer by Padres' pinch-hitter Greg Myers sliced the margin to a single run. Greg Maddux came out to make his first relief appearance since 1987 and set the Padres down in order to register his first professional save. Upon return of series to Atlanta, the offense once again went dormant, as LCS MVP Sterling Hitchcock and four relievers stopped the Braves in Game 6 on two hits, 5-0, with all runs crossing the plate in the sixth inning, as Tom Glavine was victimized by three unearned runs. Failure to produce any type of offense at home sealed the Braves' fate, with the team being held to two runs in 28 innings at Turner Field, with Padres hurlers holding the Braves scoreless over the final 19 frames.

1999 -- Atlanta 4 games, New York 2

The Braves clinched their 5th NL pennant of the 1990's with an 11-inning, 10-9 triumph over the Mets in Game 6 in Atlanta, concluding a thrilling series that first saw Atlanta come within 4 outs of a 4-game sweep and would later see New York draw to within 3 outs of forcing a 7th game. Game 1 proved to be the only contest not decided by one run, with Greg Maddux (7.0 IP, 5 H, 1 R, 1 ER, 1 BB, 2 K) picking up the 4-2 victory and John Rocker recording the save. In Game 2, Brian Jordan and Eddie Perez blasted 2-run homers in the bottom of the 6th to turn a 2-0 deficit into a 4-2 lead that the Braves would never relinquish. Kevin Millwood supplied another strong effort (7.1 IP, 5 H, 3 R, 2 ER, 1 BB, 4 K), with Rocker coming on to douse an 8th-inning fire after the Mets posted an unearned run to make the score 4-3. With the tying run on second and one out, Rocker fanned John Olerud and Robin Ventura (sandwiching an intentional walk to Mike Piazza), and gave way in the 9th to John Smoltz, who fired a 1-2-3 frame to notch the save in his first major league relief outing. After the LCS shifted to New York, the Braves scored an unearned run in the 1st inning of Game 3, and watched Tom Glavine (7.0 IP, 7 H, 0 R, 1 BB, 8 K), Mike Remlinger and Rocker make it stand up in a 1-0 victory that gave the Braves a commanding 3-game lead in the series. Game 4 saw the Braves carry a 2-1 lead into the bottom of the 8th, but Olerud's 2-out, 2-run single plated the tying and go-ahead runs, spoiling a superb outing by Smoltz (ND, 7.1 IP, 4 H, 2 R, 2 ER, 0 BB, 7 K). The Mets sent the series back to Atlanta after prevailing in a 15-inning marathon in Game 5, 4-3, which entered the record books as the longest game in terms of time in major league post-season history. The Braves took a 3-2 lead in the top of the 15th on a 2-out RBI triple by Keith Lockhart, but saw the Mets — who hadn't scored since a 2-run homer by Olerud in the 1st — rally for 2 runs in the bottom of the frame on a bases-loaded walk to Todd Pratt and a Ventura drive over the right field fence that was ruled an RBI single when he left the basepaths. It appeared as if the Braves had finally put the Mets away with a 5-run 1st inning when the series returned to Atlanta for Game 6, but New York battled back to knot the score at 7-7 on a 2-run Piazza blast in the 7th off reliever Smoltz, and took the lead in the top of the 8th on a Melvin Mora pinch-hit RBI single. A Brian Hunter run-scoring single in the bottom of the inning tied the score again at 8-8. The contest carried into extra innings, with Todd Pratt's sacrifice fly in the 10th putting the Mets within 3 outs of a 7th game. Ozzie Guillen responded in the bottom of the 10th with an RBI single off Armando Benitez, against whom the Braves were 1-for-30 all year before the 10th-inning rally, making it a 9-9 contest. The Braves finally settled the issue in the bottom of the 11th when Andrew Jones worked a bases-loaded walk off reliever Kenny Rogers, sending Atlanta to its 5th World Series of the 1990's. Eddie Perez earned MVP honors after batting .500 (10 x 20) with 2 homers and 5 RBI.

2001 -- Arizona 4 games, Atlanta 1

The Braves, appearing their record 11th NLCS, were unable to solve the Diamondbacks' vaunted one-two tandem of Randy Johnson and Curt Schilling as Arizona captured their first pennant in a 4-games-to-1 series victory. Braves managed only 3 hits in a 2-0 Johnson shutout in the opener at Phoenix, but did salvage a split of the first 2 road games as Javy Lopez's 2-run homer in the 7th snapped a 1-1 tie, with Atlanta going on to an 8-1 win in Game 2. Tom Glavine (7.0 IP, 5 H, 1 R, 1 ER, 2 BB, 2 K) notched the Braves only win of the series. Schilling turned in a dominating effort in the Diamondback's 5-1 victory in Game 3 in Atlanta, limiting Atlanta to 4 hits in a complete game effort, while striking out 12. Braves took a 2-0 lead through 2 innings as they attempted to even the series in Game 4, but 3 Atlanta errors aided a 4-run D-Back 3rd, giving them a lead they never relinquished in an 11-4 win and a commanding 3-games-to-1 lead in the series. Braves committed 4 miscues overall, leading to 6 unearned Arizona runs. Arizona completed the 3-game sweep in Atlanta and advanced to the World Series with a 3-2 triumph in Game 5, with the D-Backs again capitalizing on a Braves error to tally 2 unearned runs in the 5th inning that proved to be decisive. While not as effective as in his Game 1 shutout, Johnson still held the Braves to 2 runs over 7 innings, giving him a 1.13 ERA in 2 starts in the series (16.0 IP, 2 ER, 19 K).

The Braves in the Division Series

1995 -- Atlanta 3 games, Colorado 1

In the first year of the expanded playoff format, the Braves drew wild-card entry Colorado in the best-of-five-series. The series opened at Colorado's Coors Field in dramatic fashion as the Braves won, 5-4. Rookie-of-the-Year candidate Chipper Jones swatted his second homer of the game in the ninth inning to give the Braves the lead, and Alejandro Pena and Mark Wohlers held it after the Rockies loaded the bases in the bottom of the ninth with one out. Atlanta staged another rally in Game 2, prevailing 7-4, after trailing, 4-3, entering the ninth inning. Marquis Grissom hit two homers in the contest, his second and third of the series. In Atlanta, the Rockies avoided the sweep by hammering two home runs and nine hits on the way to a 7-5 win in Game 3. Staff ace Greg Maddux, Grissom, and Fred McGriff teamed to lead the Braves to a 10-4 victory in Game 4, sending the team to its third straight NLCS appearance. Grissom collected five hits in the finale, setting a franchise record for post-season hits in a game. Fred McGriff hit two homers in the contest.

1996 -- Atlanta 3 games, Los Angeles 0

Although the Braves hit only .180 and were held to 10 runs, Atlanta nonetheless swept the Dodgers in 3 games, as the staff allowed only 3 ER in 28.0 IP (0.96 ERA). Game one in L.A. saw the Braves continue their '90s tradition of one-run games in the post-season as Javy Lopez's 10th-inning homer lifted the team to a 2-1 victory. John Smoltz (9.0 IP, 4 H, 1 R, 1 ER, 2 BB, 7 K) received the win, while Mark Wohlers pitched a scoreless 10th inning for the save. In Game 2 the Braves trailed 2-1 before Fred McGriff's HR leading off the seventh inning tied the game and, one out later, Jermaine Dye hit another roundtripper to account for the games' final run. Greg Maddux allowed only 2 unearned runs in 7.0 IP to earn the win, and Wohlers recorded his 2nd save in 2 games, as the Braves headed back to Atlanta with a two-games-to-none lead. The Braves completed a three-game sweep as Tom Glavine (6.2 IP, 1 ER) and Chipper Jones (2-run homer) led the Braves to a 5-2 triumph. Jones' blast followed a 2-run double by Mark Lemke, capped a 4-run 4th inning to give the Braves a 5-0 lead, and knocked out Dodgers starter Hideo Nomo. The victory sent the Braves to their fifth straight NLCS.

1997 -- Atlanta 3 games, Houston 0

The Braves registered their second consecutive Division Series sweep, this time taking three straight from the Astros. Atlanta never trailed in the series, while outscoring Houston, 19-5. Game 1 saw a vintage performance by Greg Maddux (9.0 IP, 7 H, 1 R, 1 ER, 1 BB, 6 K) in a 2-1 victory, the decisive run coming on a homer by Ryan Klesko in the 2nd inning. The Braves cruised to an easy 13-5 win in Game 2, as the offense broke a 3-3 tie with 3 runs in the 5th and 5 more in the 6th. In addition to collecting 10 hits in the contest, the Braves also received 10 walks from Astros pitching, including 8 issued by starter Mike Hampton. The Braves applied the knockout blow to the Astros in game 3 at Houston as John Smoltz went the distance in a dominating effort (9.0 IP, 3 H, 1 R, 1 ER, 1 BB, 11 K), taking a 4-1 decision. For the series, Braves starters Maddux-Glavine-Smoltz combined for a 1.87 ERA (3 ER in 24.0 IP). The Braves' offense, despite being held to a .217 BA, posted 19 runs with their 20 hits.

1998 -- Atlanta 3 games, Chicago 0

For the third straight season, the Braves recorded a sweep in the Division Series, this time over the Cubs. Dating back to the final game of the 1995 first-round series vs. the Rockies, the Braves have posted 10 straight wins in Division Series competition. Michael Tucker's two-run homer proved to be all the support needed by John Smoltz (7.2 IP, 5 H, 1 R, 1 ER, 0 BB, 6 K) in Game 1, as the Braves cruised to a 7-1 victory. Ryan Klesko's seventh-inning grand slam accounted for Atlanta's final four tallies. Game 2 featured a classic pitching duel between Tom Glavine (7.0 IP, 3 H, 1 R, 1 ER, 1 BB, 8 K) and Kevin Tapani, with the Cubs clinging to a 1-0 lead entering the bottom of the ninth. Javy Lopez then blasted a one-out homer, sending the contest into extra innings. In the bottom of the 10th, Chipper Jones delivered a one-out single to plate the winning run and send the Braves to Chicago with a 2-0 series lead. Former Cub Greg Maddux and rookie phenom Kerry Wood faced off in Game 3. Maddux, who led off the third with a double and came around to score on a passed ball, clung to a 1-0 lead through seven innings. The Braves put the game out of reach with a five-run eighth, highlighted by an Eddie Perez grand slam. The Cubs touched Maddux for two runs in the eighth (7.0 IP, 7 H, 2 R, 2 ER, 0 BB, 4 K), but Kerry Ligtenberg came on to pitch two scoreless innings and send the Braves to their record seventh straight NLCS.

1999 -- Atlanta 3 games, Houston 1

The Braves rebounded from a 6-1 loss in Game 1 to take three straight from the Astros to advance to their record 8th straight NLCS. Atlanta's offense managed only 1 run on 7 hits in the opener in Atlanta, with Greg Maddux (7.0 IP, 2 ER) absorbing the defeat. Kevin Millwood stepped up in Game 2 and turned in a masterpiece, hurling the 5th 1-hitter in post-season history as the Braves evened the series with a 5-1 victory. Millwood (9.0 IP, 1 H, 1 R, 1 ER, 0 BB, 8 K) allowed only a 2nd-inning homer to Ken Caminiti in his first post-season outing. Eddie Perez plated the go-ahead run with a 6th-inning sacrifice fly. The series shifted to Houston, where the two clubs put on an extra-inning post-season classic in Game 3. Atlanta escaped with a 5-3 victory as Brian Jordan supplied all 5 runs, courtesy of a 3-run, 6th inning homer (erasing a 2-0 deficit), followed by a 2-run double in the 12th. With the score tied 3-3 in the bottom of the 10th, the Astros loaded the bases with no one out, only to see John Rocker come in and slam the door, with stellar support from shortstop Walt Weiss. Weiss saved the Braves with a diving stop of a one-out Tony Eusebio liner up the middle, which resulted in a force at home, followed by a Rocker strikeout of Ricky Gutierrez to end the frame. After Jordan's go-ahead double in the 12th, Kevin Millwood was brought in from the bullpen and registered the save with a 1-2-3 inning. Braves appeared to have series sewed up thanks to a 5-run 6th in Game 4, giving Atlanta a 7-0 lead, only to see Houston storm back to narrow the Braves' lead to 7-5 in the 8th, with Caminiti striking the big blow with a 3-run homer. A leadoff walk to Stan Javier in the bottom of the 9th again brought the tying run to the plate, but Rocker fanned Jeff Bagwell and Carl Everett, before Andruw Jones ran down a Caminiti blast to the warning track to end the series.

2000 -- St. Louis 3 games, Atlanta 0

The Cardinals jumped on Braves' starters Greg Maddux, Tom Glavine and Kevin Millwood and cruised to a three-game sweep of the Braves, who had won five straight Division Series entering this one. The Redbirds set the tone for the series in the bottom of the first of Game 1, striking for 6 runs off Maddux, although a Chipper Jones error accounted for 2 of those tallies being unearned. Cardinals starter Rick Ankiel's bout of wildness (4 walks, 5 wild pitches) contributed to the Braves' 4-run rally in the third inning, narrowing the deficit to 6-4. Four Cardinal relievers held the Braves in check thereafter, however, allowing only a ninth-inning run as St. Louis claimed a 7-5 victory. In Game 2, the Braves scored 2 runs in the top of the first, but Will Clark's 3-run homer in the bottom of the frame quickly erased the Braves' only lead of the series. Tom Glavine was tagged for 7 ER in 2.1 IP, the second-shortest post-season outing of his career as the Cardinals took a 10-4 decision. The change of venue didn't help the Braves, as Fernando Vina opened Game 3 in Atlanta with a leadoff homer off Kevin Millwood (4.2 IP, 4 ER) as the Cardinals went on to complete a sweep of the series with a 7-1 victory.

2001 -- Atlanta 3 games, Houston 0

The Braves, appearing in the Division Series for the 7th straight year, took 3 in a row from the Astros to advance to their record 11th NLCS. Atlanta pitching was dominant in the sweep, with the staff compiling a 1.67 ERA. Greg Maddux (6.0 IP, 2 ER) kept the Astros at bay in hitter friendly Enron Field in Game 1, only to see Houston maintain a 3-2 lead heading into the 8th inning. Keith Lockhart's leadoff pinch-hit double was followed by a Marcus Giles single to even the score at 3-3, and two batters later, Chipper Jones deposited Astros closer Billy Wagner's first pitch into the left field seats for the decisive 3-run homer in an eventual 7-4 win. Tom Glavine starred in Game 2, blanking the Astros over 8.0 innings (6 H, 2 BB, 3 K) and making an unearned Braves run in the 2nd inning stand up for a 1-0 win, with John Smoltz recording the save. Braves completed the sweep in Game 3 as homers by Paul Bako and Julio Franco provided the Braves 3 runs over the first 3 innings, all they would need en route to a 6-2 victory. John Burkett (6.2 IP, 6 H, 2 R, 2 ER, 2 BB, 4 K) teamed with 4 relievers to shut down Houston's high-powered offense. Chipper Jones finished the series with a .444 BA, including 2 homers and 5 RBI, while Andruw Jones went 6 x 12 with a solo homer.

BRAVES HISTORY

1901 - In the first year of so-called "modern" baseball, meaning the American League made its official major league entry, the Boston team finished fifth. They were led by Kid Nichols, who won 20 games as a pitcher and also played the outfield and first base.

1902 - Vic Willis and Togie Pittinger each won 27 games, but the club finished third.

1912 - The team acquires the nickname "Braves" for the first time at the suggestion of Johnny Montgomery Ward. Before that, the team had been known as the Doves because of its owners, the Dovey brothers. It was also known as the Beaneaters and the Red Caps.

1914 - The Braves completed their miracle finish by coming from last on July 18 to win the N.L. pennant. They won 34 of 44 games in their drive to the top and finished an astonishing 10.5 games in front of the second place Giants. The Braves then swept four from heavily favored Philadelphia to win the World Series. Johnny Evers won the MVP award.

1928 - Rogers Hornsby, playing for his third team in three years, hit .387 for the Braves and easily won the N.L. batting title.

1935-Babe Ruth finished his career in a Braves uniform. Ruth homered in his first N.L. at-bat, off Carl Hubbell, but batted only .181 and, after seven more homers for a career total of 714, removed himself from the lineup in June and officially retired as a player.

1936-The Braves' name was changed to the Bees as a result of a fan poll. Five years later the club readopted the nickname of the Braves.

1938-Casey Stengel managed his first of six Braves teams.

1947-Johnny Sain and Warren Spahn each won 21 games for the third-place Braves. The team exceeded one million in attendance (1,277,361) for the first time. Bob Elliott won MVP.

1948-This is the year that produced the phrase "Spahn and Sain and two days of rain" as Warren Spahn and Johnny Sain combined for 39 wins. Sain had a league-high 24 as the Braves won the pennant but lost to Cleveland in the World Series. Al Dark batted .322 to lead the Braves in the regular season while winning the Rookie-of-the-Year award.

1950-Centerfielder Sam Jethroe won the Rookie- of -the-Year award.

1952-Eddie Mathews became the first rookie in major league history to hit 3 home runs in a game, accomplishing it on September 27.

1953-The Braves played their first season in Milwaukee, attracting a National League-record 1,826,297 fans, and finished second. Eddie Mathews won the home run title with 47, and Warren Spahn led the league in pitching victories with 23.

1954-Bobby Thomson suffered a broken ankle in spring training and forced the Braves to try a young infielder by the name of Hank Aaron in the outfield. Aaron batted .280 with 13 homers as the Braves finished third.

1956-Hank Aaron won the batting title with a .328 average, but the Braves lost the pennant to the Dodgers on the final day of the season.

1957-The Braves won the pennant and World Series. Hank Aaron was the league MVP, leading the N.L. in homers and RBI, but it was late-season call-ups Wes Covington and Bob "Hurricane" Hazle who sparked the Braves. Replacing injured players, Covington hit 21 homers, and Hazle batted .403 down the stretch. Aaron batted .393 and Lew Burdette won three games as the Braves beat the Yankees in the Series. Spahn won the Cy Young Award.

1958-In the year the Dodgers and Giants went West, the pennant stayed in Milwaukee. Mathews and Aaron combined for 61 homers, Spahn and Burdette for 42 pitching victories to lead the way. However, the Yankees won the World Series, four games to three.

1959-It required a post-season playoff for the Los Angeles Dodgers to supplant the Braves as N.L. champs. Mathews led the league in homers with 46, Aaron in hitting with a .355 average. Burdette and Spahn won 21 games each. This also was the year Pittsburgh's Harvey Haddix pitched 12 perfect innings against the Braves only to lose the game on a homer by Joe Adcock in the 13th.

1960-Aaron led the league in RBI with 126 and Spahn in victories with 21, but the Braves finished second to Pittsburgh.

1961-Spahn again led the league in wins with 21, but the Braves fell to fourth place in the standings.

1963-Aaron just missed the triple crown, leading the league in homers with 44 and RBI with 130. Tommy Davis of the Dodgers won the batting title with a .326 average to Aaron's .319.

1964-The Braves finished fifth in spite of having five players hit 20 homers or more; Aaron (24), Mathews (23), Rico Carty (22), Denis Menke (20) and Joe Torre (20).

1965-The Braves' move to Atlanta was halted by a court order, forcing a lame duck season in Milwaukee. The Braves led the league with 196 homers.

1966-The Braves and Pirates debuted Major League Baseball's first season in Atlanta on April 12, with Pittsburgh winning, 3-2, in 13 innings. Atlanta was fifth in its initial season, but Aaron hit 44 homers and had 127 RBI to lead the league in those departments.

1967-Aaron hit 39 homers to again lead the league, but the Braves fell to 7th in the league standings.

1968-In the year of the pitcher, Aaron still managed 29 homers, and the Braves climbed to fifth in the league standings.

1969-The Braves marked the first year of division play by winning the West. Phil Niekro won 23 games, while Aaron slugged 44 homers and knocked in 97 runs. However, the Braves lost to the Miracle Mets in the playoffs, three games to none.

1970-Rico Carty won the batting title with a .366 average, and Hank Aaron, in addition to collecting 38 homers, realized a milestone by getting his 3,000th career hit. But the Braves dropped to fifth in the N.L. West.

1971-Aaron hit his 600th career homer, this one in Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium off the Giants' Gaylord Perry. After hitting an Atlanta rookie record 33 homers, Earl Williams won BBWAA Rookie-of-the-Year honors.

1972-Manager Luman Harris was replaced during the season by future Hall of Fame third baseman Eddie Mathews. The team finished fourth. The Braves also hosted the All-Star Game in Atlanta for the first time.

1973-The Braves produced three hitters who belted 40 or more home runs, Dave Johnson (43), Darrell Evans (41) and Hank Aaron (40). Aaron climbed to within one homer of tying Babe Ruth for the all-time career record of 714, while Johnson hit 42 of his as a second baseman, tying Rogers Hornsby for the Major League record for most homers in a season by a second baseman. Phil Niekro no-hit the Padres, winning 9-0. Lack of pitching dropped the Braves into fifth place in the standings.

1974-Hank Aaron tied Babe Ruth the first time he swung the bat, connecting on April 4, off Cincinnati's Jack Billingham. Four days later he broke the record with No. 715 against Dodgers' lefty Al Downing. Ralph Garr led the league in hitting with a .353 average, and Buzz Capra was the ERA leader with his 2.28 mark.

1975-The season was comparatively uneventful, but in January of the off-season it became official that television magnate Ted Turner purchased the club.

1976-The Braves shook the baseball world by signing pitcher Andy Messersmith, who during the off-season won his free agency in court.

1977-Ted Turner decided to become team manager during a 17-game losing streak. He lost to Pittsburgh, 2-1 at the Pirates' Three Rivers Stadium. Turner's tenure in the dugout lasted only one game as Commissioner Bowie Kuhn banished him upstairs.

1978-Larry McWilliams and Gene Garber stopped Pete Rose's hitting streak at 44 games. Bob Horner, the nation's No. 1 draft choice, signed with the Braves and made the jump from the Arizona State campus to the majors and won the Rookie-of-the-Year award.

1979-Phil Niekro achieved his 200th career victory by beating the Pirates at Pittsburgh. Niekro won 21 games. Tragically, Director of Player Personnel Bill Lucas, who functioned as the Braves' general manager, died from a brain hemorrhage at age 43 on May 5th.

1980-Manager Bobby Cox moved Dale Murphy to the outfield, and he responded with 33 homers, 89 RBI.

1981-A players' strike spoiled the season, costing the Major Leagues a total of 713 games.

1982-Dale Murphy, winning the first of two consecutive MVP awards, paced the Braves to a West Division title by hitting 36 homers and knocking in 109 runs. The Braves set a Major League record at the time by winning their first 13 games of the year. However, they lost to the Cardinals in the League Championship Series. Former Braves star Hank Aaron was elected to the Hall of Fame.

1983-Murphy won the MVP award again, but the Braves finished second, three games back. They attracted an Atlanta-record 2,119,935 fans.

1984-Murphy hit 36 homers for the third straight year to tie Mike Schmidt for the league lead.

1985-Rick Mahler reeled off victories in his first seven starts and Dale Murphy enjoyed another banner season with 37 homers, but the club finished fifth in the N.L. West.

1986-Dale Murphy's consecutive-game streak came to an end July 9th at 740 games. Bob Horner hit four homers in an 11-8 loss to Montreal, July 6.

1987-Though the team finished with a 69-92 record, the Braves posted their best offensive numbers in 14 seasons, paced by Dale Murphy's .295 average, 105 RBI and career-high 44 homers.

1988-Russ Nixon took over as manager of the Braves May 23 as the club struggled to a 12-27 record under Chuck Tanner. First baseman Gerald Perry finished with a .300 batting average (5th in N.L.) and a team-high 29 stolen bases.

1989-The Braves finished at 63-97, a nine-game improvement over the previous season. Lonnie Smith shook off the effects of an ankle injury to hit .315 (third in the N.L.) with career highs in HR (21) and RBI (79). His performance earned him league Comeback-Player-of-the-Year honors.

1990-The Braves created shock waves August 4 when they traded Dale Murphy, one of the most respected athletes in Atlanta history, to the Philadelphia Phillies for Jeff Parrett, Jim Vatcher and Victor Rosario. The move enabled David Justice to return to right field and he responded with 20 home runs and 50 RBI over the last two months. Justice wound up hitting .282 with 28 homers and 78 RBI, enough to earn him Rookie-of-the-Year accolades.

1991-The Braves made history by becoming the first team ever to reach the World Series just one season after having baseball's worst record. Although the team stumbled into the All-Star break 9.5 games behind the first-place Dodgers, they were able to slice seven games off the lead in the first 12 days after the break. What followed was a thrilling stretch drive during which the Braves and Dodgers were never separated by more than 2.5 games after August 10. Among many clutch performances were the N.L.'s first-ever combined no-hitter by Kent Mercker, Mark Wohlers and Alejandro Pena on September 11 vs. San Diego and David Justice's game-winning, two-run homer off Rob Dibble on October 1, capping a comeback from a 6-0, first-inning deficit. The Braves finally clinched the division title on October 5, after an eight-game winning streak, the first six coming on the road, to set Atlanta records of 94 wins (including a 55-28 mark in the second half) and 2,140,217 in attendance.

Steve Avery was the MVP of the NLCS after tossing a record 16.1 consecutive scoreless innings to lead the Braves to a seven-game triumph. Mark Lemke then turned the World Series into a personal showcase by hitting .417 and helping push the Twins all the way to Game 7, a heartbreaking, 1-0 loss in 10 innings.

Tom Glavine won the Cy Young Award; Terry Pendleton won the batting title and was named N.L. MVP; Bobby Cox became the BBWAA and AP N.L. Manager-of-the-Year; Schuerholz earned UPI N.L. Executive-of-the-Year honors; and BASEBALL AMERICA honored Atlanta by naming it the Organization-of-the-Year.

1992-Francisco Cabrera's 9th-inning, two-out, two-run, pinch-hit single and Sid Bream's photo finish slide at home plate gave Atlanta a stunning 3-2 triumph over the Pirates and sent the Braves to their second consecutive World Series. The Braves became the first NL team to win back-to-back pennants since the 1977-78 Dodgers, while setting a new franchise record with a major league-leading 98 victories. On May 27, the Braves resided in last place with a 20-27 mark, 7.0 games behind front-running San Francisco. The team then proceeded to rip off 21 wins in 24 games en route to finishing the season with an amazing 78-37 (.678) run over the duration of the campaign. Included in this blitz was a 13-game winning streak from July 8-25, which tied the franchise record set in 1982. The Braves finally moved into first place July 22, then were tied for the top spot on two occasions before gaining the lead for good on August 2.

The Braves led the league in ERA (3.14) for the first time since 1958. For the second straight year, Tom Glavine won 20 games, including a 13-game winning streak, which established a modern day Braves' record. John Smoltz won a career-high 15 games, and became the first Braves' hurler to lead the NL in strikeouts (215) since Phil Niekro in 1977. Pendleton produced another outstanding season, collecting a career-high 105 RBI while hitting .311. His 39 doubles set an Atlanta record and his 199 hits were tied for first in the loop.

Atlanta then met Toronto in the first International World Series, with the Blue Jays prevailing in six games. Deion Sanders starred for the Braves in defeat, hitting .533 with five stolen bases. Nonetheless, the Braves repeated as league champions for the first time since 1957-58.

1993-After one of the most pulsating stretch runs in baseball history, the Braves became the first team to win the N.L. West for three consecutive years when they captured the division over the Giants on the season's final day. The Braves set a franchise record with 104 victories, leading the majors in wins for the second straight season. Atlanta played 54-19 ball (.740) after the All-Star break, the third-best second half in major league history and overcame a 10-game deficit as of July 22. The surge coincided with the July acquisition of Fred McGriff from San Diego, with the Braves going 51-17 (.750) after McGriff joined the lineup. McGriff's first game as a Brave on July 20 will always be remembered in Atlanta as the night of the pre-game press box fire at Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium; McGriff's homer in the contest ignited the Braves from a 5-0 deficit to an 8-5 win over the Cardinals.

McGriff (37, 101) joined David Justice (40, 120) and Ron Gant (36, 117) to give the Braves the first trio of 100+ RBI men in the N.L. since the Braves' 1970 lineup of Aaron, Cepeda and Carty. The Braves led the league in homers (168) and ERA (3.14) for the second straight season, the first team to do so in consecutive years since the 1977-

78 Dodgers. Atlanta's "Fab Four" starting rotation lived up to expectations, with Greg Maddux winning his second consecutive Cy Young Award after posting a 20-10 mark with a 2.36 ERA. Tom Glavine (22-6, 3.20 ERA) became the first N.L. pitcher to win 20+ games for three straight years since Ferguson Jenkins hurled six consecutive 20+ win seasons from 1967-72. Steve Avery (18-6, 2.94 ERA) matched his career-high in victories, and John Smoltz (15-11, 3.62 ERA) gave the Braves four 15-game winners for the first time this century. Jeff Blauser (.305) became the first Brave shortstop to hit over .300 since Alvin Dark in 1948 and set a franchise mark for runs scored (110) by a shortstop. Terry Pendleton recovered from a slow start to knock in 84 runs, while Mike Stanton (27 saves), Rookie-of-the-Year runner-up Greg McMichael (2-3, 2.06 ERA, 19 saves) and Steve Bedrosian (1.63 ERA) led the relief corps. The team drew a franchise-record 3,884,720.

1994-The Braves opened the campaign in the newly aligned National League attempting to capture their fourth straight division crown in their new home, the N.L. East. The Braves began the season in record fashion, winning their first seven games, all on the road. It was the second best start in Atlanta history and a modern N.L. record for consecutive wins on a season-opening road trip. Kent Mercker no-hit the Dodgers, 6-0, April 8 in Los Angeles. The Braves equalled their Atlanta-best 13-1 start, which included tying a team record 10 straight road wins. The Braves set an Atlanta record for runs scored in their 19-5 victory at Chicago April 15. In that game Atlanta hit back-to-back-to-back homers and duplicated the accomplishment three days later to become the first team in major league history to achieve the feat twice within that short a time frame. Bobby Cox became the 41st manager in major league history to win at least 1,000 games with a 6-5 victory June 17 vs. Cincinnati. Fred McGriff, David Justice and Greg Maddux represented Atlanta in the All-Star game in Pittsburgh. Maddux started for the National League, and McGriff captured the MVP award after he hit a three-run homer in the ninth inning to tie the game at 7-7. (The NL won in 10 innings, 8-7.) McGriff hit his 30th homer August 5 at Cincinnati to become the ninth player in major league history to hit at least 30 home runs in seven or more straight seasons. He led the team in homers (34), batting average (.318), RBI (94), runs scored (81) and 2B (25).

Maddux also reached the record books by becoming the first player in major league history to win three straight Cy Young Awards. Maddux finished 16-6, tied for the lead league in wins, and led the league in ERA (1.56), complete games (10), innings pitched (202.0) and opponents batting average against (.207). For the third consecutive season, the Braves led the N.L. in homers with 137. They also finished second in the league with a 3.57 ERA.

The Braves were second in the N.L. East, 6.0 games behind Montreal, when the players went on strike after the games of August 11, cancelling the playoffs and World Series for the first time since 1904.

1995-The Braves validated their label as the "Team of the '90's" by winning their first World Series in 38 years. The world championship was the first for the city of Atlanta in a major professional sport, while the Braves also entered the record books as the first franchise to win the World Series in three different cities. Atlanta overcame a 23-20 start (3rd place, 5.0 GB) to post a 67-34 (.663) mark from June 14 through the remainder of the regular season, running away with the N.L. East title by 21.0 games. By winning the division, the Braves became the first N.L. team to finish first in four consecutive completed seasons since the 1921-24 New York Giants.

Atlanta's pitching lived up to expectations, leading the majors with a 3.44 ERA; the Braves' staff became the first to lead the majors in ERA for three straight completed seasons since the Baltimore Orioles topped the majors from 1969 through 1972. Greg Maddux claimed his unprecedented fourth straight Cy Young Award, going 19-2 with a 1.63 ERA, becoming the first starting pitcher since Walter Johnson in 1918-19 to record an ERA of less than 1.70 in two consecutive seasons. He ended the season with a major league record 18-game winning streak on the road (including an 0.99 ERA) dating back to July, '94. Mark Wohlers emerged as the dominant closer the Braves had sought throughout the '90's, saving 25 games, including 21 straight chances between May 15 and September 3. Fred McGriff (27), David Justice (24), Ryan Klesko (23) and Rookie of the Year runnerup Chipper Jones (23) became the first Braves foursome to hit over 20 homers in a season since 1973, and Javy Lopez matched Joe Torre's 1966 record for the best average by an Atlanta catcher with a .315 mark.

Last at-bat wins were the trademark of the '95 Braves, with Atlanta winning an N.L.-best 25 games in this fashion, including 18 after July 3. The Braves led the majors with 31 one-run victories, and went on to notch another seven victories in the post-season by one run and/or in their last at-bat.

Atlanta beat the Rockies three games to one in the Division Series, and routed the Reds in the first-ever four-game sweep of an NLCS, before winning the world title with a six-game triumph over the Indians, climaxed by Series MVP Tom Glavine's one-hitter over eight innings and David Justice's decisive sixth-inning homer in the 1-0 finale.

1996-The Braves made their fourth trip to the World Series out of the last five played, but were unable to defend their world title as the Yankees took the championship in six games. In their final season at Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium, the Braves took over first place for good on May 19, en route to winning the NL East by 8.0 games. The division crown was Atlanta's fifth straight, marking the first time a National League team has registered five straight first-place finishes. Braves bowed out of Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium by setting a franchise mark with 56 home wins, topping the old record of 51, set three times previously. Atlanta's .270 team BA was its best since hitting .272 in 1983, while the club's 197 homers were third-most in Atlanta history, trailing only the teams of 1966 (207) and 1973 (206). The pitching staff set a major league record by fanning 1,245 batters, breaking the Astros' major league mark of 1,221 set in 1969; the staff also allowed the fewest walks in the majors, issuing only 451 free passes.

By going 12-15 in September, team ended a stretch of playing .500+ ball for 21 straight months since April, 1993.

John Smoltz continued the Braves' Cy Young reign, as the righthander fashioned a breakthrough season, going 24-8 with a 2.94 ERA. He set modern day franchise records with his 276 strikeouts and a 14-game winning streak, and established an Atlanta mark with his 24 victories. Smoltz lost his opening start, then went 14-0 with a 1.83 ERA over his next 15 outings. Greg Maddux didn't win a fifth straight Cy Young Award, but went 15-11 with a 2.72 ERA, while Tom Glavine went 15-10 with a 2.98 ERA and won his 3rd Silver Slugger Award. Mark Wohlers shattered Gene Garber's 1982 franchise record of 30 saves by notching 39 of his own in 44 opportunities, and also recorded 100 strikeouts in 77.1 IP. Stellar years at the plate were enjoyed by Chipper Jones (30-110-.309), Fred McGriff (28-107-.295), Ryan Klesko (34-93-.282) and Marquis Grissom (23-74-.308). Grissom won his 4th consecutive Gold Glove Award and collected a career high 207 hits, becoming the first Brave to reach the 200 mark since Ralph Garr had 214 in 1974. Grissom set a franchise record with 671 AB, and compiled a 28-game hitting streak (49 x 127, .386) July 25-Aug. 24; it was the longest streak by a Brave since Rowland Office hit in 29 straight in 1976, and the third-longest in Atlanta history. On June 2 at Cincinnati he also became the first Brave to complete a straight steal of home since Ed Miller performed the feat in 1979. Other offensive highlights included Jeff Blauser's 7-RBI game at Philadelphia May 11, the first by a Brave since Orlando Cepeda in 1970, Jermaine Dye's homer in his first major league AB May 17 vs. the Reds (the first debut HR by a Brave since Chuck Tanner in 1955), and a 18-1 rout of the Cubs May 20, providing the Braves' largest margin of victory in a contest since Boston beat St. Louis, 20-3, August 25, 1936. The 1996 season also saw the debut of 19-year-old phenom Andruw Jones on Aug. 15, who made the jump from A-ball to the majors in under two months. At 19 years, 3 months and 23 days, he became the fourth-youngest player in Atlanta history, and in his second game, the next day, he socked his first M.L. homer, becoming the youngest National Leaguer to go deep since Houston's Larry Dierker in 1965.

Atlanta took the final three contests by scores of 14-0, 3-1, and 15-0. By winning the first two World Series games in Yankee Stadium, the Braves appeared on their way to repeating as world champions, but saw New York capture the final four games and the title. The Braves organization was recognized by BASEBALL AMERICA as the Organization-of-the-Year for 1996, the second time since 1991.

1997-The Braves won a major league high 101 games and an unprecedented sixth straight division title, but failed to reach the World Series for the first time since 1993 when the Marlins won the NLCS, four games to two. The six consecutive first-place finishes eclipsed the old mark of five straight set by the New York Yankees (1949-53) and the Oakland A's (1971-75). In their inaugural season at Turner Field, the Braves won 12 of their first 13 home games, and retained sole possession of first place from April 14 through the remainder of the season. The Braves set a major league record for April with 19 victories, breaking the old mark of 18, set six times previously. The team clinched the N.L. East on September 22, finishing with a 9.0 game margin over Florida. Atlanta's pitching once again proved dominant, leading the majors with a 3.18 ERA and 17 shutouts. Fourth starter Denny Neagle turned in the National League's only 20-victory campaign, going 20-5 with a 2.97 ERA, while Greg Maddux (19-4, 2.20) narrowly missed the 20-win circle. John Smoltz (15-12, 3.02) led the National League with 256.0 innings pitched, and became the first pitcher in franchise history to notch at least 200 strikeouts in four seasons. Tom Glavine (14-7, 2.96 ERA) was one of four Braves starters to rank in the top 10 in the N.L. in ERA. Glavine was named the National League's Pitcher of the Month for April after going 4-0 with a 1.64 ERA, while becoming the first pitcher to record two career shutouts at Colorado's Coors Field. Mark Wohlers became the first Braves pitcher to notch consecutive 30-save seasons, while fanning 92 in 69.1 innings pitched. On offense, the Braves reached the .270 mark for the second straight year, a feat they hadn't accomplished since 1947-48. Most noteworthy were the 12 grand slams hit by the squad, setting a major league record, featuring 3 by Chipper Jones in a span of 13 contests, setting the NL record for 3 slams in the fewest team games. C. Jones posted another solid season (21-111-.295), with 20 stolen bases, and became the first Braves third baseman to drive in 100+ runs in consecutive seasons since Eddie Mathews in 1959-60. Ryan Klesko led the squad with 24 homers, followed by Javy Lopez (23), Fred McGriff (22), and C. Jones (21). Jeff Blauser added 17 homers, while batting .308. The offense exploded for 9 run-innings twice in 12 games (June 22 and July 3), after not having performed the feat since 1989. Grand slams by Ryan Klesko and Tim Lincecum on July 14 vs. the Phillies marked only the fifth occasion in franchise history that the Braves hit 2 slams in a contest. Quartet of Maddux-Neagle-Glavine-Smoltz excelled in August, not allowing more than 3 ER in any of their final 19 starts of the month. Neagle joined the 20-game winners circle for the first time in his career with a 4-0 combined shutout at San Diego September 7. Maddux ended the season with a sensational ratio of 19 wins to 20 walks, with 6 of those being intentional. Rafael Belliard made headlines when he belted his first homer in more than 10 years, a 2-run blast Sept. 26 at New York. In the post-season, Atlanta swept 3 games from Houston in the Division Series, giving the Braves a 9-1 mark in Division Series competition. Competing in a record 6th straight National League Championship Series, the Braves lost to the Marlins in 6 games, marking the first time a team other than Atlanta represented the National League in the World Series since 1993.

1998-The Braves set a franchise record with 106 victories, and extended their own records by winning a seventh straight division title and appearing in a seventh consecutive LCS, but fell short of the World Series once again as the Padres took the NLCS, four games to two. Atlanta's 106 victories were tied for the sixth most in NL history, as the team clicked on all cylinders throughout the season, evidenced by a franchise record 215 homers, a major league leading 3.25 ERA, and an NL-high and franchise-record .985 fielding percentage. The offense tied a major league record by homering in 25 straight games April 18-May 13 and set a post-1900 record with 826 runs, while the Braves became only the third franchise in major league history to produce four 30-homer players in one season (joining 1977 and 1997 Dodgers, and 1995-97 Colorado Rockies). Andres Galarraga dispelled a widely held theory that his recent home run totals with the Rockies were inflated by playing 81 games at Coors Field by belting 44 homers, an increase of six over his 1997 total. Chipper Jones set career highs with 34 homers, a .313 BA, and 123 runs scored and became the first Brave to knock in 100+ RBI for three straight seasons since Dale Murphy did it four years in a row 1982-85. Javy Lopez set career highs with 34 homers and 106 RBI, while leading all major league catchers with a .995 fielding percentage. His 34 longballs and 106 RBI set Braves franchise records for a catcher (Joe Torre hit 36 homers in 1966, but only 31 as a catcher, while nearly half of Torre's 109 RBI in 1964 came as a first baseman). Andruw Jones rebounded from a slow start (.204 through April) to become the sixth-youngest player in major league history to reach the 30-homer mark, ending the campaign with 31 homers, 90 RBI and 27 stolen bases; he also became the youngest 20-20 player in major league history, a record established by the Astros' Cesar Cedeno in 1972, and captured his first Gold Glove in center field. The pitching staff, in addition to leading the majors in ERA, also paced both leagues with 24 complete games, 23 shutouts, and 1,232 strikeouts, the second-highest total in major league history, behind only the '96 Braves staff (1,245). Tom Glavine produced the staff's sixth Cy Young Award since 1991 by going 20-6 with a career-low 2.47 ERA, while all five members of the rotation won 16 or more games; the only other team in major league history to perform the feat was the 1902 Pittsburgh Pirates. The rotation as a whole included major league leaders in wins (Glavine's 20 were tied for first), ERA (Greg Maddux at 2.22, his fourth ERA title in six seasons) and winning percentage (John Smoltz went 17-3 for an .850 winning percentage). Two individual milestones attained by Braves pitchers were Dennis Martinez becoming the winningest Latin American pitcher in major league history when he registered his 244th career victory in a 7-5 decision at San Francisco August 9, and Maddux notching his 200th career win in an 8-4 triumph over the Giants August 18. Kerry Ligtenberg took over the closer's role in the bullpen and went 30-for-34 in save opportunities, becoming the first NL rookie since Cards' Todd Worrell in 1986 to post 30 saves in a campaign. The defense led the loop in fielding for the first time since 1969, committing a league-low 91 errors. After winning the NL East by 18.0 games over the Mets, Braves beat the Cubs in three games for their third straight Division Series sweep, before losing the NLCS in six games for the second straight year, this time to the Padres.

1999-The Braves overcame the loss of several key players and captured their fifth National League pennant of the 1990's, before falling to the Yankees in the World Series. At the outset of spring training, the Braves were stunned to hear that Andres Galarraga would be lost for the season because of non-Hodgkins lymphoma in a bone in his lower back, and also saw closer Kerry Ligtenberg go down with a season-ending medial collateral ligament tear in his right elbow. Despite these losses and season-ending injuries to Javy Lopez, Odalis Perez and Rudy Seanez during the summer, Braves managed to win 103 games and claim their unprecedented eighth straight division title. The team blew open a tight race with the Mets by taking 5 of 6 games from the New Yorkers in late September, highlighted by Chipper Jones' 4-HR barrage in a 3-game sweep in Atlanta, which served as his springboard to the MVP Award. C. Jones led the Braves to a franchise-record 840 runs scored, while setting a National League record for homers by a switch-hitter with 45 longballs, and also became the first player in major league history to hit at least .300, have at least 100 runs, 100 RBI, 40 HR, 40 doubles, 100 walks, and 20 steals. Under the tutelage of Don Baylor, he clubbed 15 HR in 142 AB (every 9.5 AB) against lefthanders, after having only 12 HR in 678 lifetime AB vs. lefties (every 56.5 AB) entering the campaign. New acquisition Brian Jordan drove in a career-high 115 runs, despite being hindered by a painful right hand after being plunked June 22. Gerald Williams provided punch in the leadoff spot with 17 homers, while Andruw Jones hit 26 HR and became the third Atlanta Brave to play in all 162 games (Felix Millan, 1969; Dale Murphy, 1982-85), in addition to winning his second straight Gold Glove in center field. Lopez, batting .317 when a partial tear of his right ACL in late July sidelined him for the season, was capably replaced for the duration by Eddie Perez (career-high 104 games). Braves pitching, while not as dominant as in seasons past, nevertheless led the majors in ERA for the 6th time in the 1990's at 3.63. Atlanta's Cy Young trio of Greg Maddux, Tom Glavine and John Smoltz were amazingly surpassed in performance by fourth starter Kevin Millwood, who went 18-7 with a second-ranked 2.68 ERA, leading the majors with a .202 opponents BA, and placing third in the National League's Cy Young balloting in only his second full season. Greg Maddux went 19-9, Tom Glavine added 14 wins, and John Smoltz battled elbow problems (including two stints on the D.L.) en route to 11 victories. Terry Mulholland proved to be a valuable trading deadline pickup from the Cubs, mixing in 8 relief outings with his 8 starts, and compiled a 2.98 ERA after joining the Braves. Mike Remlinger appeared in a career high 73 games and became an unsung hero, going 10-1 with a 2.37 ERA; his 10 wins were the most by an Atlanta reliever since Cecil Upshaw won 11 in 1971. John Roker stepped up as the third Braves' closer in as many seasons and recorded 38 saves in 45 opportunities, 4th-best in the NL, and only one behind Mark Wohlers' franchise mark of 39 in 1996. His dominance was exhibited by his 104 strikeouts in only 72.1 IP, while allowing only 47 hits. In the post-season, Braves disposed of Astros in 4 games, then appeared in their record 8th straight LCS, outlasting the Mets in a pulsating 6-game series after being up 3 games to none. Braves made their 5th World Series appearance of the 1990's, and held two 8th-inning leads (in Games One and Three), but failed to preserve them and were swept in 4 straight by the Yankees.

2000-The Braves claimed their unprecedented ninth straight division title, but saw their streak of eight consecutive appearances in the N.L.C.S. come to an end when they were swept in the Division Series by the Cardinals. Despite losing John Smoltz for the season in spring training with a torn right medial collateral ligament, and Quilvio Veras for the second half of the campaign with a torn anterior cruciate ligament in his right knee, the Braves still posted 95 wins, becoming only the third team in major league history to record 90+ wins in nine consecutive completed seasons, joining the Yankees (12 straight years, 1947-58) and Cubs (nine straight years, 1904-12). The season was highlighted by a Braves' modern franchise record 15-game winning streak April 16-May 2, the longest streak in the N.L. since the New York Giants won 16 straight games in 1951. The Braves entered the first of two series with the Mets September 18 leading New York by 3.0 games and won the first two contests to assume a commanding 5.0 game lead with 11 to play; Braves reeled a 10-3 stretch from September 13 through their division clincher September 26 at New York. Chipper Jones followed his '99 MVP campaign with another outstanding season, hitting .311 with 36 homers and 111 RBI. His RBI total, besides matching his career high, also enabled him to become only the second third baseman in major league history to notch five straight 100+ RBI seasons, joining the Pirates' Pie Traynor 1927-31. Nineteen-year-old infielder Rafael Furcal made the jump from A ball to the majors in spectacular fashion as he was named the BBWAA's National League Rookie of the Year after batting .294 in 131 games, with an Atlanta rookie record 40 stolen bases. Andres Galarraga made a strong comeback from his bout with cancer that led him to miss all of the 1999 season, hitting 28 homers, collecting 100 RBI while batting .302. Veras was in the midst of an excellent campaign (.309, 25 steals) when he was lost for the season three games into the second half. Andruw Jones made the All-Star team for the first time, won his 3rd straight Gold Glove and turned in a breakthrough year at the plate with career highs in homers (36), RBI (104) and BA (.303), mostly from the second spot in the batting order. He became the 5th-youngest player in history to reach the century mark in career homers, trailing only Mel Ott, Tony Conigliaro, Eddie Mathews and Alex Rodriguez. The Braves ERA of 4.06 was its highest since the 1990 season, but still led the majors for the fourth straight year and for the seventh time in the last nine years. Tom Glavine placed second in N.L. Cy Young balloting after finishing 21-9 with a 3.40 ERA, joining Roger Clemens as the only active pitchers with five 20+ win seasons. Glavine, whose 21 wins led the majors and 241.0 IP set a career high, went 10-2 with a 3.01 ERA after Braves' losses, and became the 96th pitcher in history to reach the 200-win mark, ending the year with 208 victories. Greg Maddux won 19 games for the 4th time in 6 seasons (19-0, 3.00), while reeling off 39.1 consecutive scoreless innings September 2-28, the longest scoreless string in the N.L. since Orel Hershiser's record run of 59.0 consecutive shutout innings in 1988. Maddux, by winning at least 15 games for the 13th straight year, became only the third pitcher in M.L. history to accomplish that feat, joining Cy Young (15 straight years) and Gaylord Perry (13 straight years). John Rocker recorded 24 saves in 27 opportunities, while fanning 77 in 53.0 IP. Braves entered the post-season with a 15-2 record in Division Series contests, but subpar outings by Maddux (4.0 IP, 5 ER), Glavine (2.1 IP, 7 ER) and Kevin Millwood (4.2 IP, 4 ER) led to a three-game exit against the Cardinals.

2001- The Braves became the first team in professional sports to claim a 10th straight division title, outlasting the Phillies in a race that wasn't decided until game number 160. Amazingly, from June 22 through the end of the campaign, the two clubs were never separated by more than 3.5 games. Although the team failed to win at least 90 games for the first time in a completed season since 1990, the Braves managed once again to win the N.L. East by overcoming a rash of injuries, including a season-ending left shoulder dislocation suffered by shortstop Rafael Furcal on July 6. Three quarters of the Braves starting infield that were present at the season's outset were replaced by the beginning of September: Furcal's loss led to the acquisition of shortstop Rey Sanchez from the Royals July 31; first baseman Rico Brogna retired in July, and was replaced by Ken Caminiti, who gave way to Julio Franco in the season's final month; and Quilvio Veras' July 31 release led to the promotion of Marcus Giles. The bullpen also received a makeover, with John Rocker and minor leaguer Troy Cameron being traded to the Indians June 22 in exchange for Steve Karsay and Steve Reed. That duo was later joined by Rudy Seanez, who was reacquired by Atlanta Aug. 31. On offense, the team dipped in most categories, but Chipper Jones still became the first third baseman in major league history to compile 6 straight 100 RBI years, to go with 38 homers and a career-high .330 BA. Brian Jordan struck 3 of the biggest homers in Braves regular season history over a 6-day span, when he almost single-handedly knocked the defending league champion Mets out of contention. A 2-homer game Sept. 23 at New York (a 2-out shot to draw the Braves to within 1 run, followed by a game-winning blast in the 11th) was followed by a 2-out, 9th-inning grand slam on a 0-2 pitch that capped a 7-run rally and gave the Braves an unlikely 8-5 win on Sept. 29 in Atlanta. Andruw Jones, even in an "off-year," still led the club with 104 RBI to go with 34 homers. Greg Maddux paced the staff with 17 wins, becoming only the 2nd pitcher in M.L. history to win at least 15 games for 14 straight seasons, behind only Cy Young at 15 straight years. He also set a National League record by not issuing a walk for 72.1 IP over 11 starts. John Burkett became one of the biggest surprises in the majors by turning in his best season since 1993, finishing 3rd in the N.L. with a 3.04 ERA, and earning a spot on the N.L. All-Star team. John Smoltz made the transition to the closer's role a successful one, compiling a 1.59 ERA in 31 relief outings, with 10 saves in 11 opportunities. Braves clinched 10th straight division title with a 20-3 win over Florida Oct. 5; the 20 runs tied an Atlanta single-game record, while the 10-run first inning marked the first time since 1953 that the Braves had posted 10 runs in the opening frame of a contest. In the National League Division Series, Braves swept Astros in three games, marking Atlanta's 4th first-round sweep since the 1996 post-season. Braves earned split of first two games of N.L.C.S. on the road against Arizona, but saw the Diamondbacks take three straight contests in Atlanta and the N.L. pennant en route to the World Series title.

Braves Best Pitching Starts

In research dating back to 1900, Elias Sports Bureau found the following Braves who had gotten off to successful starts at the beginning of their seasons.

Warren Spahn	8-0 in 1947, in 8 starts plus a no-decision in relief during that stretch.
Jim Wilson	8-0 in 1954, in 8 consecutive starts.
Ed Brandt	8-0 in 1931, in consecutive starts, all complete games.
Larry McWilliams	7-0 in 1978 for best Atlanta start. He was not called up from minors until July 17, so this streak was not at start of season but was a win streak that began the season for McWilliams.
Rick Mahler	7-0 in 1985, in 7 consecutive starts.
Pete Smith	7-0 in 1992, in 11 starts.
Tom Glavine	7-0 in 1993, in 10 starts.
Denny Neagle	7-0 in 1997, in 10 starts.
George Stone	6-0 in 1969, in 13 games with only 3 wins as a starter.
Pascual Perez	5-0 in 1983, in consecutive starts.
Tom Glavine	5-0 in 2000 & 1989, in 7 starts.
Mark Wohlers	5-0 in 1994, all in relief.
Terrell Wade	5-0 in 1996, 36 relief appearances and 8 starts.

Media Credentials: Credentials will be issued only to legitimate news gathering agencies that have contacted the Public Relations Department at least 24 hours in advance of their assignment. To obtain media credentials, a written request must be made to the Braves' Public Relations Department (P.O. Box 4064, Atlanta, GA 30302) on appropriate letterhead stationery. Please specify the name(s) and function of the individual(s) being sent to cover the game. Identification will be required before credentials can be distributed. Credentials may be picked up at the Media Window located at the Southwest Gate of Turner Field on Bill Lucas Drive. Both the Media Window and Entrance open three hours prior to the game. Credentials are not issued to anyone under 18 years of age. Any party abusing this policy will forfeit their credential and all privileges.

Media Parking: Limited parking for the media is available in the Media Lot. The entrance to the Media Lot is located on the corner of Crew Street and Little Street (Little Street is off of Hank Aaron Drive, one block south of Bill Lucas Drive, directly behind the stadium). For further information, please contact a member of the Public Relations Department.

Media Entrance: The Media Entrance to Turner Field is located at the Southwest Gate, on Bill Lucas Drive near Pollard Boulevard. This is the side of the stadium farthest from downtown Atlanta, nearest the expressway. To obtain admittance to the stadium, members of the media must show one of the following: a Major League Baseball Working Pass, BBWAA card or an Atlanta Braves season/daily credential.

Press Box: The Turner Field Press Box is located on the Press Level. A 40-foot walkway leads directly from the Press elevator to the entrance to the Press Box. The Press Box can accommodate 104 individuals. Credit card telephones are located on the tabletops of the Press Box and in the workroom, located directly behind the Press Box. Dining facilities are located in the Press Area. Live shots and still photographs are prohibited from the Press area. Proper credentials are required for admittance.

Clubhouses: Take the Press Elevator to the service level. Walk straight ahead down the corridor, turn left to the main tunnel. The Braves clubhouse entrance is about 150 feet to the right, the Visitors Clubhouse is to the left. Both clubhouses are closed to the media 45 minutes prior to and during the game. Following the game, the clubhouses re-open to the media within 10 minutes after the last out. The trainer's room, weight room and players' lounge are closed to the media at all times. Proper credentials must be displayed to access either clubhouse. Still Photographers are not permitted in the clubhouse without special permission. The clubhouses are limited to credentialed working media only.

Field: Enter the field via the Field Access corridor off the main tunnel between the Braves and Visitors clubhouses. The field and dugout areas must be cleared 45 minutes prior to first pitch. Pre-game broadcast interviews and live shots must be done on the warning track or in the dugout. Post-game live shots can be done from the warning track after the teams have left the field.

Dark Rooms: Reserved dark rooms are located across from the Braves clubhouse, next to the Braves family room, on the service level.

Photo Areas: A limited number of still photographer field level positions is available, subject to team discretion. There are also upper level wells and outfield locations. The Field Access corridor is off the main tunnel between the Braves and Visitors clubhouses. Still photographers are not permitted in the clubhouses without special permission.

Broadcast Booths: Located in the Press Box. There are seven broadcast booths: Booth 1 (Home TV), Booth 2 (Home Radio), Booth 3 (Visiting TV), Booth 4 (Visiting Radio), Booth 5 (Spanish Radio-weekdays only), Booth 6 (Reserved), Booth 7 (Reserved). To obtain use of a reserved booth, please contact either the Public Relations or Broadcasting departments.

2002 Braves Radio / TV

The Atlanta Braves, TBS, Turner South, FOX Sports Net South, News/Talk 750 WSB, and Fiesta Mexicana, Spanish Broadcast, will team up once again in 2002 to bring Braves fans the best and most comprehensive sports broadcasting in Major League Baseball. TBS, or its predecessor, WTCG, has been carrying Braves games since 1973. TBS reaches more than 63 million homes. FOX Sports Net, in more than 7 million homes, has broadcast select Braves regular season and spring training games on a southeastern regional basis the past 10 seasons. News/Talk 750 WSB returned in 1995 as the home station of the Atlanta Braves radio network. WSB broadcast the Braves from 1966, their first year in Atlanta, through 1983 and from 1985-1991. WSB carries a 50,000-watt, clear-channel signal that reaches 38 states at night. WSB will carry all 162 regular season games and a number of spring training games. The Braves radio network includes about 200 affiliates. Radio Fiesta Mexicana, will return to broadcast weekday games only. Their first broadcast in 2001 was on Friday, June 15.

2002 Braves Broadcasters

Skip Caray

The 2002 season marks Skip Caray's 27th behind the microphone for TBS and the Braves. Caray joined Turner Broadcasting System, Inc. (TBS) in 1972 as voice of the NBA Atlanta Hawks and was added to Braves' telecasts in 1976.

Caray and his son, Chip, made broadcast history when they joined Skip's dad, Harry, during a Braves-Cubs contest in May of 1991, becoming the first three-generation family to announce a major league game.

Caray's call of Francisco Cabrera's pennant-winning hit driving home Sid Bream in game seven of the '92 NLCS will go down as one of the most memorable in Atlanta history. Caray was also involved in the NFL as a play-by-play announcer for the first two seasons (1990-91) of TNT's coverage of Sunday Night football and served as play-by-play announcer for baseball on TBS' coverage of the 1990

An All-American outfielder/first baseman at the University of Oklahoma, Simpson went on to play professionally for 11 seasons. He began his career in 1973 as a third round draft pick of the Los Angeles Dodgers. Rules of Interest

Player Limits: Forty until Opening Day, when the number of players must be reduced to 25 until September 1, when it becomes 40 again.

Determining Batting Average: Divide the number of at-bats into the number of hits.

Determining an Earned Run Average: Multiply the number of earned runs by nine, divide the total by the number of innings pitched.

Determining Slugging Percentage: Divide the total bases of all hits by the total times at-bat (at-bats do not include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitches, or times awarded first base because of interference or obstruction).

Determining Fielding Average: Divide the total putouts and assists by the total of putouts, assists and errors.

Determining the Percentage of Games Won and Lost: Divide the number of games won by the total games won and lost.

Determining On-Base Percentage: Add the total of hits, walks and hit by pitches and divide by the total of at-bats, walks, hit by pitches and sacrifice flies.

Determining the Magic Number: Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent.

Determining a Major League Year: A full year of service in the Major Leagues constitutes 172 days.

Consecutive Game Hitting Streaks: A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances (one or more) result in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

Consecutive Game Playing Streak: A consecutive-game playing streak shall be extended if the player plays one half-inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out.

Qualifying Marks: To qualify for the batting championship, a player must have a minimum of 502 plate appearances. To qualify for Earned Run Average leadership, a pitcher must have at least 162 innings pitched.

Doctored Bat: If a filled or "doctored" bat is used, the player is to be ejected from the game and suspended three days. Any balls hit by an illegal bat do not count. If the umpire sees the illegal bat before it is used, he issues a warning, but there is no penalty.

Relief Pitchers' Save Rule: A pitcher is credited with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions: 1) He's the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club, and 2) he's not the winning pitcher, and 3) he qualifies under one of the following conditions: a) he enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning, or b) he enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat or on deck, or c) he pitches effectively for at least three innings.

Rookie Rule: Not more than 130 at-bats or 50 innings pitched in the Major Leagues during a previous season or seasons, nor more than 45 days on a Major League roster during the 25-player limit (excluding time in military service or on the disabled list.)

Day / Night Game: Any game scheduled to start after 5:00 p.m. will be considered a night game. If a game is scheduled to start at or before 5:00 p.m. and is delayed by rain or for any other reason it shall still be considered a day game. However, both games of a two-night doubleheader shall be considered night games. When afternoon and night games are played on the same day and separate admissions are charged, they will be counted as one day game and one night game and will not be considered as a doubleheader.

Regulation Game: A regulation game consists of nine innings unless extended because of a tie score or shortened because 1) the home team needs none of its half of the ninth or only part of it; or 2) because the umpire-in-chief calls the game after five completed innings. A regulation game may be less than five innings if the home team is ahead after the top of the fifth, or takes the lead or ties the score while at bat in the fifth.

Tie Game: A regulation game that is called by the umpire-in-chief when both teams have the same number of runs is a tie game. Individual player performances are official and are entered in the records, but the game does not count in the league standings and may be re-scheduled at a later date.

Suspended Game: A game becomes a suspended game if it is terminated for any of the following reasons: 1) a curfew imposed by law; 2) a time limit permissible under league rules; 3) light failure or malfunction of a mechanical field device under control of the home club (including automatic tarpaulin or water removal equipment); 4) darkness because of any law, the lights may not be turned on. No game called because of a curfew or a time limit shall be a suspended game unless it has progressed far enough to have been a regulation game (see above). A game called under provision 3 or 4 shall be a suspended game at any time after it starts. Since 1980, if weather forces the termination of a legal game while an inning is in process, it will become a suspended game if either of the following two conditions exists: 1) the visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the game and the home team has not scored, or 2) the visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead and the home team has not tied the score or taken the lead. If a legal game is tied when called because of weather and neither situation listed above prevails, it is a tie game and must be replayed in its entirety.

Suspended games shall be resumed at the exact point of suspension of the original game. If possible, it shall be resumed immediately preceeding the next scheduled single game between the two clubs on the same ground.

A game called at the END of a completed inning AFTER NINE INNINGS for any reason shall be a SUSPENDED game. This rule became effective in 1969. Formerly, the game would have been declared a tie and replayed in its entirety at a later date.

Disabled Lists:

15-DAY DISABLED LIST: Minimum period of inactivity is fifteen (15) days. There is no limit on the number of players that may be placed on this list.

60-DAY DISABLED LIST: The minimum period of inactivity is sixty (60) days. Players on or transferred to this list after August 1 shall remain there for the balance of the regular season and post-season. This list may be used only when a club is at the maximum limit of forty (40) players.

MLB Waiver Rule

Baseball's waiver year runs from November 11 to November 10 with three waiver periods within each year.

First Waiver Period: November 11 to 30th day of subsequent regular season.

Second Waiver Period: 31st day of regular season to July 31.

Third Waiver Period: August 1 to November 10.

To make a trade with a National or American League Club, major league waivers are required only from August 1 until the day following the close of the regular season. Waivers are not required during any other time of year.

The contract of a player placed on waivers may be claimed by any other major league club. If a claim is made and the club requesting waivers does not withdraw the request, the contract shall be assigned to the claiming club. If more than one club in the same league files a claim, assignment shall be made to the claiming club of the lowest standing in the league. If claiming clubs are in different leagues, the preference for the waiver claim shall always go to clubs in the same league as the requesting club and to the claiming club of the lowest standing in that league.

Major League Waivers may be requested prior to 2:00 P.M. est., Monday through Friday (holidays excepted) and claims may be filed until 2:00 P.M. on the third business day following the date of the waiver request. If no claims are filed, the secured waivers are in effect through the close of the particular waiver period.

Unconditional Release Waivers may be requested at any time without restriction.

Special Waivers (Sept. 1 to 30th day of subsequent regular season) or Outright Waivers (31st day of regular season to Aug. 31) must be secured prior to making an outright assignment of a player contract to a National Association Club. If secured, Special Waivers are in effect for seven calendar days and Outright Waivers are in effect until the close of the waiver period.

Unconditional Release Waivers, Special Waivers and Outright Waivers are irrevocable and may not be withdrawn after they have been requested.

In some cases, Major League Waivers must be secured prior to the optional assignment of a player contract to the National Association. Generally, waivers are required as of the third anniversary of the date the player first reported for Major League service, less one year for each option charged to the player at the time he first reported.

Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium

Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium was home to the Braves from the 1966 season through the 1996 season. Ground was broken on April 15, 1964, and the first game was played on April 9, 1965, when Milwaukee defeated Detroit, 6-3, in an exhibition game before the 1965 regular season. The final game took place on October 24, 1996 when New York defeated Atlanta, 1-0, in the fifth game of the World Series. Approximate cost of the stadium was $18 million. The park was completed in 20 months, eight for design and 12 for construction. Architects were two Atlanta firms: Heery and Heery and Finch, Alexander, Barnes, Rothschild and Paschal. General contractor was the Thompson and Street Company of Charlotte, NC, and Atlanta. The stadium dimensions were 330' down each line, 402' in centerfield and 385' down the power alleys. The stadium wall was 10' with a capacity of 52,769.

A Look at Turner Field

Grand Opening – April 4, 1997...Braves defeat Cubs, 5-4.

Turner Field Firsts - First pitch by Denny Neagle at 7:47 P.M...The Cubs' Brian McRae was the first batter...Kenny Lofton was the first Braves' batter...First hit was by Chipper Jones...Michael Tucker had the first home run...Chipper Jones had the first stolen base...Brad Clontz secured the first victory and Mark Wohlers recorded the first save...First error was by Fred McGriff.

History – The 1996 Olympic Stadium, built just south of Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium, was retrofitted into a baseball only, open-air, natural grass facility between September, 1996, and April, 1997. AFC Stadium was imploded in August of 1997 and the site is now a parking lot.

Location – Between Ralph David Abernathy on the north, Hank Aaron Drive on the east, Bill Lucas Drive on the south and Pollard Blvd. on the west. It's very near the junction of I-75-85 and I-20.

Seating – Three levels supported by four concourses. A cross-aisle walkway divides the lower concourse. Field level and dugout seats are below the cross-aisle, the terrace level above it. The second level, the Lexus Level, includes 58 private suites, three party suites and the 755 Club, the ballpark's private membership club. The third, or upper level does not go all the way around the park, providing the fans there with a view of the downtown Atlanta skyline.

Playing Field – Prescription Athletic Turf, featuring a state-of-the-art mechanical drainage system and hybrid Bermuda grass. The turf for the playing field is grown in an area below the scoreboard beyond the center field wall.

Entry Plaza – The main entry to Turner Field, it was built after 35,000 seats and part of the track and field complex of the Olympic Stadium were removed. The plaza features statues of Hank Aaron, Phil Niekro and Ty Cobb, monuments of the Braves' retired numbers, a huge video screen that shows the Braves game, a video wall broadcasting every other major league game in progress, photo kiosks, a Kids Zone, a retail store and a variety of concession stands.

Scouts Alley – Located just off the Entry Plaza, it contains life-size visuals of notable Braves and their original scouting reports, interactive skills and educational activities for youth and the Braves Museum and Hall of Fame, a project of the Atlanta History Center and the Braves.

Parking – 8,500 official spaces. The lot on the site of Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium contains an outline of the playing field, including markers for home plate, the bases and the location of Hank Aaron's record-breaking 715th home run.

Scoreboard and Sound System – A 29-foot-by-38-foot Panasonic video screen and a 32-foot-by-64-foot Daktronics scoreboard. The speakers in each seating section are independently controlled.

Disabled Seating – The entire ballpark is wheelchair accessible and compliant with the Americans with Disabilities Act. More than one percent of the total seating capacity is allocated for disabled seating.
